The Crimean Agreement

The conference of Roosevelt, Stalin and Churchill that has just been concluded in Crimea calls for a sharp distinction between the military and political plans.

The repudiation of American foreign policy in the Crimea agreement is contained in the article that calls for the recognition of the Curzon line as the eastern boundary of Poland.

Are we American people recognize that act, they recognize territorial seizure by force of arms.

Worst of all we do it in the case of the first country that dared to resist aggression from Hitler!

That question might be answered by asking ourselves if we should make our entry into the area of world politics by committing a dishonorable act.
