James Guarded as Day Set for Wedding

ALVIN J. KENNEDY

WESFIELD, Austria, Feb. 5.—The Duke of Windsor, who is now in Austria, is seeking ways of financing such a trip as well as the cost of a reliable informant today.

It was said former King Edward VIII was planning to marry Mrs. Simpson April 27, and he had received the necessary permission from the king's government.

It was also said that the duke felt the lack of money was a serious obstacle to the proposed marriage. The duke is reported to have been in London today, and it is believed he is in contact with a reliable informant today.
