

The Sworn Cash Value Of The Elysian Grove $11,000; Owners' Price $30,000—$20,000 Pure Velvet

ALL THE NEWS OF THE WORLD BY A. P. LEASED WIRE

Arizona Daily Star

ARIZONA WEATHER
USE 11 L E D
"TUCSON SHINES"

VOL. LXXII, NO. 89

TUCSON, ARIZONA, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 15, 1916

TEN PAGES

City Edition

"Must Limit Pursuers To 1,000 Cavalry" Carranza

U-BOAT'S NUMBER ONE CAPSTONE OF SUSSEX CASE

Evidence Taken From Aboard German Submarine by the French, Giving Details of Destruction of Channel Ship, in Hands of Secy. Lansing

NOTHING BUT ACTION IS LEFT FOR EITHER PARTY

Rumor in Congress That "Last Word Note to Berlin Will Give Notice of Severance of Relations Is Undeveloped"

LONDON, April 14.—A rumor that the steamer on which General Chamberlain, the new secretary of state, was proceeding to India, was mysteriously attacked by a submarine, which fired a torpedo, was widely reported.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—President Wilson and the cabinet were over the German submarine case today and returned their determination to the situation with respect to an U-boat.

The decision to inform Germany that recent accumulation of evidence of other U-boat attacks was far more than the favorable conditions that her promises to discontinue relations are not being fulfilled, remained unchanged.

There were reported indications to think that the safe passage up to date of the American case up to date would be left to the government, with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Secretary Lansing would not say whether he was prepared to negotiate with the German government, but with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Some army officers share the view that the capture of Villa is most important, but the cabinet is inclined to also and scope to a complete military situation of the Mexican situation.

Several days may elapse before a final decision is reached.

Several days may elapse before a final decision is reached.

CASE NOT BE STOPPED FOR NEGOTIATIONS

Lansing Ready to Discuss Carranza's Note With Reference to Withdrawal of American Troops, But Will Continue the Pursuit of Villa

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The United States government is not prepared to discuss Carranza's note with reference to the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico.

Secretary Lansing said he was prepared to take up the matter with the six fact government but would not indicate when a reply might be made.

Both secretaries said there had been no change in the policy of the administration which insisted the pursuit of Villa.

Secretary Lansing would not say whether he was prepared to negotiate with the German government, but with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Secretary Lansing would not say whether he was prepared to negotiate with the German government, but with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Secretary Lansing would not say whether he was prepared to negotiate with the German government, but with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Secretary Lansing would not say whether he was prepared to negotiate with the German government, but with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Secretary Lansing would not say whether he was prepared to negotiate with the German government, but with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Secretary Lansing would not say whether he was prepared to negotiate with the German government, but with a view to the possible fixing of a date for the recall of American troops.

Gen. Pershing Sending Message of Col. Dodd's Victory

Gen. Pershing and Col. Dodd at Villa Guzman. The photograph shows General Pershing and Colonel Dodd in a field setting, likely during the battle at Villa Guzman.

SHERIFF DEMANDS PROOF OF CHARGES MADE BY A. B. JAYNES

Label Suit Possibility in Campaign of Recall Committee to Remove A. W. Forbes—Editor Must Substantiate Accusations

A libel suit against Allan B. Jaynes, publisher of the Tucson Citizen, is being developed in the campaign of the recall committee to remove Sheriff A. W. Forbes from office in consequence of his alleged killing by the dispatch of Mrs. J. S. Jones, a possibility that the sheriff and his friends would like to see delivered to the publisher of the afternoon newspaper a letter calling upon him to substantiate statements appearing in an extra edition of the paper.

The article in which these statements appeared was an introduction to the statement made by the sheriff during the day, and is as follows: "Sheriff Forbes is getting ready to fight his recall. One of his dependents said that he had outlined the support of the civic league and that this organization would take up his fight. A meeting of the league was held this afternoon at the chamber of commerce just at 2:30 the matter had accomplished something."

Supporters of Forbes were making every effort to get those who were circulating petitions to tear them up. "I don't think it is worth the trouble," said one man who has any authority from me to make such a statement. "I don't believe any fair man in this community would do that."

"A deputy in his office (meaning my office) was circulating a petition, whose office was circulating a petition, with respect to."

"I don't think it is worth the trouble," said one man who has any authority from me to make such a statement. "I don't believe any fair man in this community would do that."

AMERICAN SOLDIERS PAROLED BY CARRANZISTAS AND CIVILIANS, NOT AMERICANS

Dispatches to Fursten Say 40 U. S. Troopers Buy Food and Were Fired Upon, Two Being Killed, Retreating to Main Body, Cavalrymen Turned Machine Gun on Mexican Mob, Killing Forty; United States-Is Willing to "Discuss Withdrawal" With Carranza, But Will Not Discontinue Chase in Meantime; Mexico's Official Attitude Is Given to the A. P.

MEXICO CITY, April 14.—The Mexican government will insist with inflexible determination that any arm of expedition of the United States which enters Mexican territory in the guise of a punitive expedition must be limited to 1,000 men of the regular army, according to a statement made to the Associated Press today by Juan Nefelini Amador, secretary of foreign relations.

During the absence of General Cavillo Aguilar, minister of foreign relations, the secretary of state, Amador, is in charge of the foreign office.

The Mexican government was contented in all of its notes to the American government to state that the secretary of state, Amador, is in charge of the foreign office.

According to this story, forty of the troops entered Parral and were fired upon by the Mexicans. The attacking force consisted of 40 U. S. troopers and 40 Mexican soldiers.

Many of the officers and soldiers were wounded. The attacking force consisted of 40 U. S. troopers and 40 Mexican soldiers.

General Pershing's orders to the troops were to retreat to the main body of the army.

The Mexican government was contented in all of its notes to the American government to state that the secretary of state, Amador, is in charge of the foreign office.

The Mexican government was contented in all of its notes to the American government to state that the secretary of state, Amador, is in charge of the foreign office.

The Mexican government was contented in all of its notes to the American government to state that the secretary of state, Amador, is in charge of the foreign office.

The Mexican government was contented in all of its notes to the American government to state that the secretary of state, Amador, is in charge of the foreign office.