Arizona Daily Star

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2020 • SECTION C

Editor: Ryan Finley / sportsed@tucson.com

ILLUSTRATION BY CHIARA BAUTISTA / ARIZONA DAILY STAR

No stage fright allowed

Picked to finish last in the Pac-12 South, Arizona faces two options: win over the crowd or get booed off the stage. C6

I'll tell ya ...

Greg Hansen delivers everything you need to know about the Cats, Pac-12 heading into a shortened 2020 season. C8-9

Back to school

Sophomore quarterback Grant Gunnell has the skills, confidence necessary to be Arizona's next offensive star. C7

Follow the Star's daily updates, features and fun from all the games and watch videos at tucson.com/wildcats

SUMLIN HAS RESHAPED ROSTER; WILL WILDCATS WINS FOLLOW?

By Michael Lev ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Kevin Sumlin and his staff have been working to transform the Arizona Wildcats' roster. Whether they'll be around to see the fruits of their labor remains to be seen.

Unofficially, Arizona has 74 scholarship players who conceivably could play at some point this season. Sumlin's staff brought in 46 of them. He was hired in January 2018.

The Wildcats have 27 scholarship offensive and defensive linemen. Only seven are holdovers from the Rich Rodriguez regime.

Sumlin identified deficits within the roster and has moved to address them. Unfortunately, that process takes time. The on-field results have been underwhelming.

Sumlin takes a 9-15 record into this delayed, truncated Year 3. The Wildcats failed to qualify for a bowl game in Sumlin's first two seasons after going to five in six years under Rodriguez, and are riding a seven-game losing streak.

If there's cause for optimism, it lies in the promising young players who have arrived on campus in recent recruiting classes.

Besides the aforementioned linemen, Arizona has potential breakout candidates at quarterback, running back, receiver and elsewhere. The Wildcats also have a new staff and scheme on defense.

With the season finally about to begin, here's a closer look at the 2020 UA roster:

Offense

After vacillating between two quarterbacks last season, offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone is building this year's unit around sophomore Grant Gunnell. A 6-foot-6-inch, pocket-style passer, Gunnell posted an impressive stat line as a freshman: nine touchdowns, one interception and a 65.2% completion rate in eight games, including three starts. He improved his footwork and arm strength during the extended offseason and will benefit from greater offensive cohesion.

However, he won't catch opponents by surprise in Year 2.

Even with the departure of graduate transfer Brenden Schooler, Gunnell should have plenty of premium targets. Redshirt sophomore Jamarye Joiner has breakout potential after leading the team with 552 receiving vards last vear, his first as a wideout following his preseason switch from quarterback. Last season's leading receiver, redshirt junior Brian Casteel (45-397-3), also returns. So does Gunnell's former high school teammate, Boobie Curry, who is expected to have a significant role after being slowed by injury as a freshman.

Arizona will continue to rotate at receiver, and Gunnell repeatedly has said he sees no drop-off from one group to the next.

The battle for playing time is even more intense at running back, where Arizona goes fivedeep.

Two leaders emerged in fall camp: senior Gary Brightwell and sophomore Michael Wiley. Brightwell bided his time behind J.J. Taylor the past two years, rushing for 915 yards and averaging nearly 6 yards per attempt. Sumlin recently called Brightwell a "complete player." Sumlin noted Wiley's bulked-up physique. The 5-foot-11-inch Houston product has added 16 pounds to his frame, going from 186 to 202. He's running with more authority after averaging 5.5 yards per touch as a freshman. The offensive line looks respectable on paper and should benefit from Gunnell's pocket awareness and quick delivery. Two full-time starters return: Donovan Laie, who's moving from left tackle to left guard, and center Josh McCauley. Laie will team with sophomore Jordan Morgan to give Arizona two long, athletic blockers on the left side of the line.

McCauley suffered a knee injury early in fall camp, putting his status for the opener in doubt. Fifth-year senior Steven Bailey likely would take his place.

right side, Robert Congel and Pailast season.

Defense

Paul Rhoads takes over a delong time. The Wildcats haven't finished higher than ninth in the Pac-12 in points allowed or yards

REBECCA SASNETT / ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Arizona's offensive linemen run through a drill during an Oct. 16 practice at Arizona Stadium. The UA has bulked up on both lines, but lacks depth at linebacker as it heads into Kevin Sumlin's third season.

ARIZONA'S 2020 ROSTER

- O Gary Brightwell RB 6-1 218 Sr. Chester, Pa. (St. Frances Academy)
- Drew Dixon WR 6-3 198 R-Jr. Tucson (Sabino HS)
- Lorenzo Burns DB 5-11 175 R-Sr. Murrieta, Calif. (Linfield Christian HS) Boobie Curry WR 6-2 203 So. Houston, Texas (St. Pius X HS)
- Jarrius Wallace DB 6-1 185 R-Sr. Villa, La. (John Ehret HS)
- Jalen Johnson WR 6-2 224 So. Corona, Calif. (Roosevelt HS)
- Rhett Rodriguez QB 6-0 186 R-Jr. Tucson (Catalina Foothills HS) Christian Roland-Wallace DB 5-11 202 So. Palmdale, Calif. (William J Knight HS)
- Brian Casteel WR 6-0 185 R-Jr. Pasadena, Calif. (Charter Oak HS)
- Christian Young DB 6-2 206 Jr. Houston, Texas (Foster HS)
- Michael Wiley RB 5-11 202 So. Houston, Texas (Strake Jesuit HS)
- Jaden Mitchell WR 5-9 175 R-Fr. Las Vegas, Nev. (Desert Pines HS) Anthony Pandy LB 6-1 222 Sr. Carson, Calif. (Narbonne HS)
- Frank Brown Jr. RB 6-0 200 Fr. Houston, Texas (Sterling HS)
- Tre Adams WR 6-4 195 R-So. Frisco, Texas (Wakeland HS) 10 Jamarye Joiner WR 6-1 214 R-So. Tucson (Cienega HS)
- 10 Jabar Triplett LB 6-1 226 Fr. Baton Rouge, La. (Southern University Lab School)
- 11 Tayvian Cunningham WR 5-10 174 Sr. Vacaville, Calif. (Wood HS/Sacramento City CC)
- 11 Edric Whitley DB 5-11 144 Fr. Pflugerville, Texas (Weiss HS)
- 12 JB Brown DE 6-3 267 Sr. Long Beach, Calif. (Long Beach Poly HS)
- 12 Kevin Doyle QB 6-4 211 R-So. Washington D.C. (St. John's College HS) 13 Luke Ashworth QB 6-1 200 R-So. Phoenix (Arcadia HS)
- 13 Isaiah Mays DB 6-1190 Jr. Berkeley, Calif. (Berkeley HS/City College of San Francisco)
- 14 Dyelan Miller WR 6-2 192 Fr. Glendale (Centennial HS)
- 15 McKenzie Barnes DB 6-2 203 Jr. Fresno, Calif. (Edison HS) 15 Will Plummer QB 6-1 208 Fr. Gilbert (Gilbert HS)
- 16 Thomas Reid III WR 6-2 203 R-Sr. Chesapeake, Va. (Radford HS)
- 16 Cameron Fietz QB 6-1 193 R-Jr. Calgary, Alberta (Holy Trinity Academy/ University of British Columbia)
- 17 Grant Gunnell QB 6-6 228 So. The Woodlands, Texas (St. Pius X HS)
- Regen Terry DL 6-4 289 Fr Flore
- 18 Derick Mourning LB 6-3 229 Fr. Katy, Texas (Paetow HS) 18 Ma'jon Wright WR 6-2 197 Fr. Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (Cardinal Gibbons HS)
- 19 Kyle Ostendorp P 6-1 215 So. Phoenix (Desert Vista HS) 19 Kwabena Watson LB 6-2 230 R-Fr. Fresno, Calif. (Edison HS)
- 20 Darrius "Bam" Smith RB 5-9 176 R-So. Houston, Texas (Dawson HS) 20 Khary Crump DB 5-11 164 Fr. Culver City, Calif. (Culver City HS)
- 21 Jaxen Turner DB 6-1 198 So. Moreno Valley, Calif. (Rancho Verde HS)
- 21 Jalen John RB 5-11 222 Fr. Portland, Ore. (Lakeridge HS) 23 Malik Hausman DB 6-0 170 R-Jr. Las Vegas, Nev. (Bishop Gorman HS)
- 24 Rhedi Short DB 6-1194 R-Jr. Los Angeles, Calif. (Cathedral HS) 25 Bobby Wolfe DB 6-1 170 So. Houston, Texas (Madison HS)
- 25 Valen Jones WR 6-0 164 Fr. College Station, Texas (A&M Consolidated HS) 26 Eddie Siaumau-Sanitoa DL 6-3 254 R-Fr. Pago Pago, American Samoa (Leone HS)
- 27 Derrion Clark LB 6-1 202 So. Dallas, Texas (South Oak Cliff HS)
- 28 Nazar Bombata RB 6-0 206 R-So. Los Angeles, Calif. (Bishop Alemany HS) 29 Jashon Butler WR 5-9 187 R-So. Lynwood, Wash. (Meadowdale HS)
- 29 Donte Bowers Jr. DB 5-10 163 Fr. Rialto, Calif. (Liberty HS)
- 30 Quinn Sullivan DB 5-11 184 So. Bellevue, Wash. (IMG Academy)
- 31 Trey Cartledge DB 6-0 170 Fr. Scottsdale (Notre Dame Prep) 32 Jacob Meeker-Hackett PWR 6-0 206 R-Sr. Tucson (Cienega HS / Texas State)
- 32 Calib McRae LB 6-1 246 So. Tucson (Mountain View HS)
- 33 Nathan Tilford RB 6-2 196 R-Jr. Fontana, Calif. (Colony HS)
- 33 Tyler Loop K 6-0 164 Fr. Lucas, Texas (Lovejov HS) 34 John Burton RB 5-11 216 R-Fr. West Hills, Calif. (Chaminade College Prep)
- 34 Treydan Stukes DB 6-0 168 Fr. Litchfield Park (Millennium HS)
- 35 Adama Fall DB 6-3 200 Fr. Simi Valley, Calif. (Simi Valley HS)
- 36 RJ Edwards DB 6-1 198 Fr. Las Vegas (Coronado HS)

UA'S 2020 SCHEDULE

Opponent Time (TV)

Saturday at Utah		2 p.m. (ESPNU)
Nov. 14	USC	TBA (TBA)
Nov. 21	at Wash.	TBA (TBA)
Nov. 28	at UCLA	TBA (TBA)
Dec. 5	COLORADO	TBA (TBA)
Dec. 11	ASU	5:30 p.m. (ESPN)
Dec. 18/	′19 TBA	TBA (TBA)

Note: Final game on Dec. 18/19 will be decided based on Pac-12 standings through six games.

seasons. Rhoads thought he'd have seniors Colin Schooler, Tony Fields II and Scottie Young Jr. to The projected starters on the help facilitate the transition to his 3-4 scheme, but all three transton Fears, combined for 15 starts ferred, leaving holes and question marks at linebacker and safety.

Arizona did beef up its defena thin, inexperienced linebackgraduate transfers Aaron Blackwell (New Mexico) and Roy Lopez allowed in any of the past five big, strong veterans are expected them.

to play a sizable role. They join a group that returns two 300-pluspound junior-college transfers in Trevon Mason and Myles Tapusua, who combined for eight tions among 34 passes defensed. two more 300-pounders in sophomore Kyon Barrs and redshirt sophomore Mykee Irving.

Because of transfers and injuries, Arizona has only six scholarship players to man the four linebacker spots in the base defense. Pandy, who's moving to the middle after notching a career-high 66 tackles last season; and redshirt junior Jalen Harris, who has as well in space as he does in the camp from transfer Jacob Meekbulked up to 260 pounds after recording seven sacks over the past free safety is redshirt junior Rhedi two seasons. Contributions will Short, who has yet to play a game be needed inside from sophomore at Arizona but appears to have Derrion Clark, a special-teams emerged under the new defensive ace in 2019, and impressively built freshman Derick Mourning (6-3, Jarrius Wallace are capable as well. sive line and will need that unit to 229); and outside from redshirt perform well to take pressure off freshman Kwabena Watson and redshirt sophomore Issaiah Johnfense that hasn't been good in a ing corps. The Wildcats added son, who are both learning new positions. Walk-ons will factor in peared in 36 games, accumulating at linebacker as well; the Wildcats (New Mexico State), and the two couldn't form a two-deep without

- 37 Jaydin Young DB 6-0 182 Fr. Peoria (Centennial HS) 38 Dante Smith LB 5-10 220 R-So. Round Rock, Texas (Stony Point HS)
- 39 Kameron Hawkins LS 5-11 227 Fr. Victorville, Calif. (Orange Lutheran HS) 40 Dante Diaz-Infante DE 6-1 262 Sr. Phoenix (Brophy College Prep/Phoenix CC)
- 41 Mike Saliba LB 6-0 188 Fr. Dedham, Mass. (Xaverian Brothers HS/ The Loomis
- Chaffee School) 42 Connor Hutchings TEOL 6-4 232 Sr. Phoenix (Pinnacle HS/Phoenix CC)
- 42 Jeremiah Fletcher LB 5-11 203 Fr. San Diego, Calif. (Helix HS)
- 43 Lucas Havrisik K 6-2 184 Sr. Riverside, Calif. (Norco HS)
- 44 Shontrail Key DL 6-4 248 Fr. Chicago, III. (Morgan Park HS)
- 45 Issaiah Johnson DE 6-1242 R-So. Victorville, Calif. (Los Alamitos HS) 46 Jack Koceman TE 6-4 247 R-So. Santa Barbara, Calif. (Santa Barbara HS)
- 46 Thor Canales LB 6-3 224 Fr. Plano, Texas (Mountain Pointe HS)
- 47 Rourke Freeburg LB 6-2 204 R-Jr. Scottsdale (Desert Mountain HS) 48 Parker Henley LB 5-11 225 R-Jr. Chandler (Chandler HS)
- 49 Jalen Harris LB 6-5 258 R-Jr. Mesa (Desert Ridge HS)
- 50 Josh McCauley OL 6-4 284 R-Sr. Mesa (Red Mountain HS) 51 Roy Lopez DL 6-2 318 Gr. Tempe (Mesquite HS/New Mexico State)
- Aaron Blackwell DL 6-3 293 Gr. Peoria (Liberty HS/Mesa CC/New Mexico)
- 54 Matthew Stefanski Jr. OL 6-4 326 Jr. Frankfort, Mich. (Frankfort HS/Grand Valley State)
- 55 Jamari Williams OL 6-3 298 R-Fr. Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (Cardinal Gibbons HS)
- 55 Chandler Kelly DL 6-2 216 So. Chandler (Basha HS) 56 Josh Donovan OL 6-5 317 R-Jr. College Station, Texas (College Station HS/Trinity
- Valley CC)
- 58 Nahe Sulunga DL 6-3 249 R-So. Inglewood, Calif. (Calabasas HS) 58 Sam Langi OL 6-5 329 Jr. San Francisco, Calif. (El Camino HS/College of San Mateo)
- 60 Mykee Irving DL 6-3 320 R-So. Calabasas, Calif. (Calabasas HS)
- 62 Jacob Bracamonte OL 6-3 298 Fr. Tucson (Tucson High)
- 63 Steven Bailey OL 6-3 314 R-Sr. Litchfield Park (Peoria Centennial HS/Glendale CC) 64 Seth MacKellar LS 5-11 204 So. San Juan Capistrano, Calif. (J Serra Catholic HS)
- 65 Leif Magnuson OL 6-4 284 Fr. Saskatoon, Saskatchewan (Bethlehem Catholic HS) 66 Robert Congel OL 6-4 321 R-Jr. Greenwood Village, Colo. (IMG Academy/Texas A&M)
- 67 David Watson OL 6-5 301 R-So. Tucson (Amphitheater HS)
- 71 Darrell Branch OL 6-2 319 Fr. Gilbert (Higley HS)
- 72 Edgar Burrola OL 6-6 305 R-Jr. Las Vegas, Nev. (Desert Pines HS)
- 73 Woody Jean OL 6-4 314 Fr. Deerfield Beach, Fla. (Deerfield Beach HS) 74 Paiton Fears OL 6-5 316 R-Jr. Mascotte, Fla. (Lake Minneola HS/Hutchinson CC)
- 75 Josh Baker OL 6-3 285 Fr. Eureka, Mo. (Eureka HS)
- 76 Anthony Patt OL 6-4 280 Fr. San Marcos, Calif. (San Marcos HS) 77 Jordan Morgan OL 6-5 310 So. Marana (Marana HS)
- 78 Donovan Laie OL 6-5 325 Jr. Oceanside, Calif. (Oceanside HS)
- 79 Tyson Gardner OL 6-4 284 R-Jr. Queen Creek (Queen Creek HS) 80 Nathan Halsell K 6-1195 R-Fr. Santa Maria, Calif. (St. Joseph HS)
- Jalen Cochran DE 6-4 270 R-Sr. Plymouth, Mich. (Canton HS) 81 Bryce Wolma TE 6-4 239 Sr. Saline, Mich. (Saline HS)
- 82 Zach Williams TE 6-3 223 R-So. Johns Creek, Ga. (Johns Creek HS)
- 84 Tristen D'Angelo TE 6-3 196 Jr. Anthem (Boulder Creek HS/Scottsdale CC) 85 Roberto Miranda WR 6-2 227 Fr. Berlin, Germany (Schul-end Leistungssportzentrum)
- 86 Stanley Berryhill III WR 5-10 177 R-Jr. Tucson (Orange Lutheran HS)
- Stacey Marshall TE 6-5 238 Jr. Montgomery, Ala. (Lanier HS/Hutchinson CC) 90 Trevon Mason DL 6-5 305 Sr. Arlington, Texas (Sam Houston HS/Navarro College)
- 92 Kyon Barrs DT 6-2 304 So. Murrieta, Calif. (Murrieta Mesa HS) 93 Ugochukwu Nosike DL 6-3 280 Fr. South Holland, Ill. (Thornwood HS/
- Midwest Prep Academy) 94 Dion Wilson Jr. DL 6-4 276 Fr. Perris, Calif. (Orange Vista HS)
- 95 Paris Shand DL 6-5 272 Fr. Toronto, Ontario (The Loomis Chaffee School)
- 97 Naz Higgins DT 6-3 285 So. Stroudsburg, Penn. (The Hill School)
- 99 Myles Tapusoa DL 6-1 345 Sr. Rose Park, Utah (West HS/Eastern Arizona CC)

Burns is the undisputed leader of the secondary. The fifth-year vet has nine career intercep-

Christian Roland-Wallace, who had an inconsistent freshman year but has all the tools to be a star. passes defensed and one interception last season. Junior Christian Young appears safety position in Rhoads' defense. Young is big (6-2, 206) and physical but needs to prove he can play box. Young's likely companion at staff. Backups Jaxen Turner and

Turner, a sophomore, showed promise as a freshman before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury. Wallace, a senior, has ap-99 tackles, seven passes defensed, two interceptions and one forced fumble.

Senior cornerback Lorenzo Special teams

The Wildcats are seeking consistency and improvement from their specialists.

Senior kicker Lucas Havrisik tackles for losses last season; and His sidekick is rising sophomore has a powerful leg and regularly boots the ball into the end zone on kickoffs.

But a player of his ability Roland-Wallace had 37 tackles, six shouldn't have a career success rate of less than 60% on field goals.

Punter Kyle Ostendorp managed a 39.7-yard average as a The anchors are senior Anthony to be a perfect fit for the strong freshman, but you never knew what you'd get from one attempt to the next.

He faced competition in er-Hackett, a product of Cienega High School. Long and short snaps will be handled by sophomore Seth Mac-Kellar, whom the team recently awarded a scholarship. Joiner has the look of a natural punt returner and could be in the kickoff-return mix as well. Others who could return punts and/or kicks include Casteel, Wiley, Roland-Wallace and speedy senior receiver Tayvian Cunningham, who returned six kickoffs for touchdowns in junior college.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2020 / ARIZONA DAILY STAR

COLLEGE FOOTBALL C3

THERE ARE HEROES AMONG US. WE HAVE THEIR BACKS.

ARIZONA OPERATION HAT TRICK MERCHANDISE PROCEEDS BENEFIT VETERANS AND THEIR FAMILIES THROUGH THE ARIZONA FISHER HOUSE.

ARIZONAWILDCATSSTORE.COM/OHT

REBECCA SASNETT / ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Kevin Sumlin has gone 9-15 in two seasons as the Wildcats' head coach. His task this season — to return the UA to relevance — might be the most challenging one of his career.

WILDCATS LACK JUICE, AND IT'S SUMLIN WHO FEELS THE SQUEEZE

Greg Hansen

n the afternoon of Oct. 7, 2017, No. 1 Alabama beat unranked Texas A&M 27-19 in College Station, Texas, effectively putting an end to Kevin Sumlin's time as the Aggies' head coach.

Few if anyone in Tucson gave A&M's fall from grace a second thought. Kevin Sumlin? Who's

A few hours later at Colorado's Folsom Field, Rich Rodriguez's fading Arizona football program watched Ralphie the Buffalo take a pregame lap around the field and began what many thought would be another in a disturbing string of Arizona setbacks.

The Wildcats had gone 7-15 in their previous 22 games. The lowly Buffaloes were seven-point favorites that night. Arizona's future seemed to match that of Ralphie the Buffaloes' real name: Blackout.

And then UA backup quarterback Khalil Tate ran 58 yards for a touchdown. Followed by another of 28 yards. And then 47. And, indescribably, 75 yards for another.

Arizona won 45-42, and although the breaking story in Tucson and around college football was that Tate had rushed for an NCAA quarterbacking record 327 yards - completing 12 of 13 passes for 154 more yards — I thought there was much more to the story than Khalil Tate.

I thought RichRod had saved

As Tate's extraordinary October continued — he rushed for a combined 613 yards in rousing victories over UCLA, Cal and Washington State - there couldn't have been a soul in college football who didn't think it a reach that (a) Tate could win the Heisman Trophy in 2018 or 2019 and (b) the Wildcats might truly get to the Rose Bowl before the decade was out.

It was as if Arizona's long-muffled football program had gotten a vaccine and all was well.

The Wildcats averaged 558 yards and 49 points per game in those October 2017 victories. But just as expectations multiplied, it all came crashing down.

The Wildcats have since gone 10-19. RichRod was indeed fired, Tate mysteriously flamed out and the Arizona has struggled just to be competitive. The Wildcats' 10 victories in that 29-game stretch came against teams that went a combined 48-80.

Texas A&M paid Sumlin $10 million to leave the premises. Arizona offered him about $15 million to coach the Wildcats through 2022.

How's it working out? Arizona has gone 9-15 over the last two seasons, has been swept by Arizona State in two Territorial Cup games and Sumlin had second thoughts about the defensive coaching staff he initially hired; the Wildcats begin the 2020 season with an entirely new defensive staff.

REBECCA SASNETT / ARIZONA DAILY STAR Kevin Sumlin gives a thumbs up before an Oct. 16 practice on campus. Sumlin, 56, failed to take the UA to a bowl game in his first two seasons.

Indeed, there is a short list of positives about Arizona football, a program that has gone flat since Tate's extraordinary October 2017. There is little or no juice.

It would be a fascinating story if, at 56, Sumlin can rediscover the fire that led him to back-toback seasons of 12-1 at Houston in 2011 and 11-2 at Texas A&M in 2012. In college football years, 2012 was a lifetime ago.

Outside of the established mega-powers, a rise to success is a fleeting notion in college football. The odds of an Arizona or an Illinois or a Kansas breaking through is dream-on territory.

Sumlin was one of 19 FBS coaches hired for the 2008 season, at Houston. He was coming off a five-year period at Oklahoma when the talent-blessed Sooners won 54 games. He had more than earned a chance to run his own

Now edging past the prime of his coaching career at resource-rich Texas A&M, asking Sumlin to restore Arizona to the UA's version of winning football appears to be a bridge too far.

It would be a wonderful story. It would rival the October 2017 legend of Khalil Tate. But as of now, it remains a work of fiction.

other Power 5 conference coaches hired in 2008: Fired in four seasons.

Fired in three seasons. • Mike Sherman, Texas A&M. Fired in four seasons. • Art Briles, Baylor. Fired in went to Houston in 2008, Power coaches. Only three avoided getting fired from those jobs: Dabo

Swinney at Clemson, David Cutcliffe at Duke and Paul Johnson at

Here's what happened to the • Houston Nutt, Ole Miss.

• Rich Rodriguez, Michigan.

5 conference schools simultaneously hired a dozen football

Hiring college football coaches eight seasons. is an inexact business, a game • Rick Neuheisel, UCLA. Fired filled with peril. When Sumlin in four seasons.

Georgia Tech.

• Paul Wulff, Washington State. Fired in four seasons. •Bill Stewart, West Virginia.

Fired in four seasons.. • Bobby Petrino, Arkansas. Fired in four seasons.

•Bo Pelini, Nebraska. Fired in four seasons. None have been able to regain their coaching magic. Of that group, only RichRod and Petrino were hired again by Power 5 schools – Arizona and Louisville, respectively. Both were fired again.

As such, UA followers should've seen this struggle coming.

Contact sports columnist Greg Hansen at 520-573-4362 or ghansen@tucson.com. On Twitter: @ghansen711

SEASON UNLIKE ANY OTHER OPENS IN SALT LAKE CITY, ENDS WITH A TBA FOR UA

By Michael Lev

ARIZONA DAILY STAR

The Arizona Wildcats have a tough road ahead.

Arizona will open the season on Saturday at Utah, which won the South Division last year. After that, the UA hosts USC, which is the South favorite this year.

The Wildcats' crossover game is among the most difficult in the league: at Washington on Nov. 21. Arizona plays three road games among its first four, with a trip to UCLA on tap the next week.

The final two known games on the UA schedule are at home vs. Colorado on Dec. 5 and vs. Arizona State on Friday, Dec. 11. The second cross-division game is still to be determined and will take place the weekend of Dec. 18-19. This is the third version of the Pac-12 football schedule. The original slate was negated in summer, when the league implemented a 10-game all-conference format to mitigate COVID-19 issues. The Pac-12 then post-course. Here's a snapshot look at the Wildcats' six known opponents:

WEEK 1: UTAH

- When: Saturday, 2 p.m. (ESPNU)
- Where: Rice-Eccles Stadium, Salt Lake City
- Last matchup: Utah 35, UA 7 on Nov. 23, 2019, in Tucson
- Last time at venue: Utah 42, UA 10 on Oct. 12, 2018
- Utes in a sentence: Utah lost several defensive standouts to the NFL — plus tailback Zack Moss, the 2019 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year - but Kyle Whittingham is among the top coaches in the league, and the Utes have won the past four meetings.

WEEK 2: USC

- When: Nov. 14
- Where: Arizona Stadium

MORE ABOUT THE PAC-12 SCHEDULE

• The Pac-12 Championship Game will take place at the home of the highest-seeded team. The game was supposed to have been played at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas. That new partnership will begin next year.

- There are no details yet on the Week 7 pairings. • Every game through the first six weeks will be televised by an ESPN or Fox outlet. Fox will televise the Pac-12 Championship Game.
- All Pac-12 South Division rivalry games will take place during Week 6 (Dec. 11-12), while all Pac-12 North Division rivalry games will kick off on the Friday of Week 4 (Nov. 27, the day after Thanksgiving)
- Some games will kick off in a new television window: 10 a.m.
- · Last matchup: USC 41, UA 14 on Oct. 19, 2019, in Los Angeles
- Last time at venue: USC 24, UA 20 on Sept. 29, 2018
- Trojans in a sentence: Last season ended with Clav Helton on the hottest of seats, but there's a renewed sense of optimism about the Trojans with Todd Orlando on board as defensive coordinator and Kedon Slovis back at quarterback after a stellar freshman campaign (3,502 passing yards, 30 TD passes, 71.9% completion rate).

WEEK 3: WASHINGTON poned the '20 season until • When: Nov. 21

- January before reversing Where: Husky Stadium, Seattle
 - Last matchup: Washington 51, UA 27 on Oct. 12, 2019, in Tucson
 - · Last time at venue: Washington 49, UA 3 on Oct. 31, 2015
 - Huskies in a sentence: Washington is undergoing a transition at the top, from Chris Petersen to Jimmy Lake, but it should be a smooth one with Lake already having been on staff since the 2014 season; he was named as Petersen's successor in early December of last year.

WEEK 4: UCLA

- When: Nov. 28
- Where: Rose Bowl, Pasadena, California
- Last matchup: UA 20, UCLA 17 on Sept. 28, 2019, in Tucson
- Last time at venue: UCLA 31,

UA 30 on Oct. 20, 2018

• Bruins in a sentence: The Chip Kelly era hasn't gone according to plan, with UCLA posting a 7-17 record in his two seasons, but the Bruins do return quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson, who showed flashes of greatness as a sophomore last year (25 total touchdowns).

WEEK 5: COLORADO

- When: Dec. 5
- Where: Arizona Stadium
- Last matchup: UA 35, Colorado 30 on Oct. 5, 2019, in Boulder
- Last time at venue: UA 42, Colorado 34 on Nov. 2, 2018
- Buffaloes in a sentence: Colorado had a challenging offseason, with Mel Tucker leaving for Michigan State in February, and new coach Karl Dorrell never got a chance to work with his team on the field in spring before practices were shut down because of the pandemic.

WEEK 6: ARIZONA STATE

- When: Dec. 11 (Friday),
- 5:30 p.m. (ESPN)
- Where: Arizona Stadium • Last matchup: ASU 24, UA 14
- on Nov. 30, 2019, in Tempe Last time at venue: ASU 41, UA 40 on Nov. 24, 2018
- Sun Devils in a sentence: If USC isn't the favorite in the Pac-12 South, ASU might be; dynamic sophomore QB Jayden Daniels should be bigger and better in 2020 after posting a 17-2 touchdown-to-interception ratio as a 175-pound freshman.

Guaranteeo

- Delivery available online only - stLowest price claim is based on the price of a delivered pizza order with delivery fees for the top four national pizza chains on a national basis. Comparison is based on one or more large Little Caesars pizza(s), with up to five toppings, and the other three pizza chains' comparable large pizza(s) sold at every day menu prices. Delivery available from participating locations, with online orders only. Delivery fees apply. Plus tax, For guarantee terms, visit www.information.littlecaesars.com/en-us/lowestpriceguarantee. ©2020 LCE, Inc. CR0015209

ORDER FROM

Little Caesars.com

2302 N Stone Ave • 520.622.749 musselmanhonda.com

REBECCA SASNETT / ARIZONA DAILY STAR

The Arizona Wildcats open the season Saturday as a two-touchdown underdog at Utah. Expect more of the same this season, as the UA has been projected by some outlets to go winless.

WILDCATS KNOW RESPECT MUST BE EARNED IN 2020

By Michael Lev

ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Is Arizona the most disrespected, downtrodden Power Five program in America?

That's probably not the question you want to be asking entering Year 3 of the Kevin Sumlin regime. But the perception outside the walls of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility isn't pretty.

After the Pac-12 Conference released the first version of its all-conference schedule on July 31, The Athletic's Stewart Mandel - a respected, longtime chronicler of college football – predicted the Wildcats to go 0-10. Mandel even had Arizona losing at home to Colorado, which had Kevin Sumlin talks with UA president Robert C. Robbins before an Oct. 21 to change coaches in mid-Februarv, didn't practice a single time a row against the Cats. Mandel's conclusion: "The best-case scenario for Kevin Sumlin's third season is that it gets canceled altogether."

After version 3.0 of the schedule came out in early October, spect that we deserve," senior The San Jose Mercury News' Jon Wilner – the premier reporter on all things Pac-12 — also picked Arizona to go winless. Wilner's program trajectory for the UA? "Downward with a chance of collapse."

Coaches and players often say they're unaware of such predictions. Sumlin scoffed at the annual Pac-12 media poll, which had his team finishing last in the change that up this year, and it's South Division.

"I do not pay attention to it," Sumlin said, "because the people who create that ranking will not play or coach."

But at least one of his players his most prominent and importknow what others were thinking. He also seemed rankled by it.

any wins is almost a joke to me," sophomore quarterback Grant Gunnell said. "I feel like we're going to shock some people."

to do it? The Wildcats went 9-15 in Sumlin's first two seasons. They lost their last seven games last season. They also lost three projected starters to transfer from perfect marriage. a defense that couldn't afford to lose anyone.

mid-October. The website measures a team's overall talent by totaling the recruiting rankings among players on the current roster. Arizona ranked last in the Pac-12 and 69th overall. Only two Power Five programs were lower: Kansas State (70th) and Kansas (71st).

in a worse place than the Wild-practice. Robbins followed the coach's career when both were in Texas.

have been the Wildcats' sixth in under Sumlin. seven years.

en, and one of the wisest Wildcats seems to grasp that.

"I don't think we get the retight end Bryce Wolma said. "But, on the other hand, we've got to go out and prove it. So I think this is a big year for us.

"It seems like the last three years everyone's going into the season doubting, picking us ... last in the Pac-12. Guys have taken that personally ... to get rid of that (stigma) around our progonna take everybody. But I know that we've got the guys to do it."

Unhappy pairing

Sumlin arrived in January 2018 with great expectations. Sure, the situation unfolded only did ant one — certainly seemed to things had soured for him at Texas further damage to Sumlin's rep-A&M. After 11-2 and 9-4 seasons, the Aggies plateaued at 8-5. They "Saying we're not gonna have were 7-5 when Sumlin was dismissed in late 2017.

But Sumlin had won 66.2% of Does Arizona have the means possibly do better than that? He not that simple. No matter: Ar- The pandemic threw everything us," defensive lineman Mykee Ir-Khalil Tate. It appeared to be the initially committed to them at receiver Brenden Schooler, Col-

> The honeymoon didn't last Tucson, Gunnell followed. long. Arizona lost the '18 openprevious season, barely ran at all. Noel Mazzone's offense.

Tate got hurt the following and '19 on either side of the ball. week in a blowout loss at Housdidn't look quite right until late in the season. A November ralto earn a bowl berth, and Aritop receiver and has lost three in in Sumlin's first season. It would would be no postseason in Year 1

Washington and UCLA coach Rick Neuheisel, now a college football analyst for CBS Sports. "You've put a little pressure on in athletic departments today," 2019. You get out of the box 4-1, then all of a sudden you don't win a game. Now it looks like, been excruciating. You can ease something from a structural standpoint that's broken."

on a seven-game losing streak. to do. After a promising start, Tate struggled and lost the full-time gram. We're definitely looking to starting job. His eligibility ex-Trophy candidate is currently out of football.

It's unfair to pin all the blame question as well." for the Wildcats' struggles the past two seasons on the quarterback and his coaches. But the way

Texas A&M. Some UA fans faulted Mazhis games at A&M and 67.3% at zone, although, as with all as-Houston, and how could Arizona pects of Tate's career here, it's that 2020 ought to be a write-off. inherited a team that finished 7-6 izona is now being led by Gun- into upheaval. It led to the transunder Rich Rodriguez and had a nell – Sumlin and Mazzone's dynamic, talented quarterback in handpicked quarterback. Gunnell Fields II and Colin Schooler, plus want to win the day." A&M. When the coaches came to in's older brother.

247Sports.com released its er to BYU. Tate, who had rushed to Tate or anything that happened those players would be wearing it's attainable. "Team Talent Composite" in for more than 1,400 yards the the previous two seasons, Mazzone agreed with the notion that Questions immediately surfaced the Wildcats seem to be rowing about Tate's fit in coordinator in the same direction now. That wasn't always the case in 2018 ton, spraining his ankle, and any business - everybody has to seven-game losing streak loomhave the same vision and be on ing over the program. the same mission," Mazzone said. Truth be told, the Jayhawks are ly put the Wildcats in position "In any kind of organization, ... transfers), because I don't think you've got to have a captain of that happens but for the pancats. Kansas hasn't won more zona was 15 minutes away from the ship, or nobody knows which demic and the decisions the Pac-

(receiver) Boobie Curry.

bunch of individuals."

Finances and fairness

After last year's Territorial Cup, a 24-14 defeat in Tempe, UA an impromptu media scrum. The news: Sumlin would be back for Year 3.

"This is not where we wanted "But we're committed ... to the Heeke made no mention of the financial impact of letting Sumbeen owed $10 million in two payments. The buyout was hard 25% or 50% reduction. "Economics are a real factor Neuheisel said. "The hit they've taken during the pandemic has from the outside, that there's some of that tension by calling tion," Robbins told the Star in July this season a write-off. Financially, it makes sense. You can Arizona ended the '19 season make a case that it's the fair thing

"The problem is, if you struggle again this season, what does participate in the program going forward? That is an economic

If Sumlin were fired shortly after the Dec. 19 season finale, he'd be owed $7.5 million. If it happened in mid-January, he would be owed $5 million. Either way, utation as a QB developer after it's a sunk cost. And if you wait to Kyler Murray transferred out of behind in the hiring and recruiting cycles.

A strong argument can be made, as Neuheisel mentioned, fers of veteran linebackers Tony

If the season had started when rough. The future is uncertain. While not specifically referring it was supposed to, all three of Respect is hard to come by. But UA colors – and the Wildcats' outlook would be brighter. It isn't Sumlin's fault that they left.

The question is whether the program's critics, or even its supporters, will acknowledge those "Like in anything – any team, nuances – especially with that

"I give him (a pass for the since 2009. Arizona was one play dered a 19-point fourth-quarter that in guys like Grant, guys like ... no one's going to give a dang these guys play."

(center) Josh McCauley, guys like about that. He's got to find a way to do it with the kids he has, find "I see a bunch of guys out there a way to right the ship. Because that see us as a team and not a at day's end, Arizona needs to be relevant again, and it needs to be relevant again soon."

'Win the day'

One big upset could change evathletic director Dave Heeke held erything. No one knows that better than Sumlin.

His first season at A&M was going well. The Aggies were 7-2 when they visited No. 1 Alabama. to be at this point," Heeke said. The program went supernova when Johnny Manziel led them to process, moving this thing for- a 29-24 victory over the Crimson

'Here's a guy who understands exactly what that means. He lived lin go. If it had happened before it," Neuheisel said of Sumlin. "He in spring, lost its quarterback and away from earning a bowl berth lead against Arizona State. There mid-January 2019, he would have saw his star go through the roof with that kind of outcome."

A through line can be drawn "Now you've put yourself on to justify then. It's almost im- from that game to Sumlin's hir-But respect is earned, not giv- alert," said former Colorado, possible to fathom now, amid the ing at Arizona. UA president coronavirus pandemic, even at a Robert C. Robbins, who grew up in SEC country, worked in Houston while Sumlin soared in College Station.

"When you go into Tuscaloosa and knock off Alabama and Nick Saban, that gets people's atten-2018. "I had known about him, of course, from Houston. He won there. He won at A&M. And he's going to win at the University of Arizona."

The early portion of the revised it do to vour fan base in terms schedule is formidable – but rife pired, and the one-time Heisman of motivation to come back and with opportunities. Arizona is a two-touchdown underdog for Saturday's opener at Utah. USC and Washington should be heavily favored as well.

But let's not get ahead of ourselves. The Wildcats have a plan to upend perceptions and change their narrative.

The so-called experts say 0-7. five-star recruits Kyle Allen and save $2.5 million, you fall further The Cats say 1-0. That's their mantra, instilled by strength coach Brian Johnson and prescribed to daily. "We don't really care or worry > about what they're saying about ving said. "At the end of the day, it's about us. Every day, we just It's a prudent approach. The first two years under Sumlin were

> "Sometimes you hit some rocks when you're trying to dig a foundation to build a program," Mazzone said. "But ... I think a lot of pieces are starting to fall in place. "Now, obviously, like any job, you've got to go out and put a good product on the field and win football games. But I love where we're at right now. I love where the mindset of this football team is and what Coach has developed than three games in a season pulling it off. But the UA squan- way to oar. And I really have seen 12 made," Neuheisel said. "But here, and I'm excited to watch

ARMED AND READY: CATS' GUNNELL SET FOR SCRUTINY COMING HIS WAY

By Michael Lev

ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Pressure? Grant Gunnell welcomes it.

Not necessarily the in-yourface pressure from a blitzing linebacker. No quarterback likes that, including Arizona's.

We're talking about the pressure that comes with leading an offense and becoming the face of a program. It can be daunting, especially when that program has lost seven games in a row, has an embattled head coach and lacks depth and experience at key positions on defense.

Gunnell wouldn't have it any other way.

"There's always pressure when you're playing football," the sophomore said. "That's not a bad thing to me. I see and feel pressure as something that drives me. If you're not feeling pressure, those butterflies in your stomach, you don't love football. You can ask anyone."

Arizona is asking a lot of Gunnell. Although he has only three career starts, he is the undisputed starting quarterback for 2020 and beyond. He was tasked with keeping the team together when they couldn't physically be together in the spring and summer. He represented the Wildcats during the virtual version of Pac-12 Media Days. Only two of the 12 players Arizona State quarterback Jayden Daniels.

UA players recently voted for team captains. Gunnell was the only sophomore to make the cut. The other four were fourth- or fifth-year veterans.

"He's a natural-born leader," Wildcats cornerback Christian Roland-Wallace said.

Although there's still work to be done - Gunnell showed great promise as a freshman, but it's a small sample size and he still has much to prove - the record-setting quarterback from Houston has toiled to reach this point. He's the starting QB for a Power Five program, piloting an offense built around him.

"Grant has unbelievable passion for this game, and he wants to be really good at it," said offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Noel Mazzone, who recruited Gunnell to Texas A&M before both made their way to Tucson. "This is something that he's worked (for) basically his whole young life up to this point, to play major college portant to him? The offseason was bumpy for Gunnell and every college football player across America. The coronavirus pandemic halted spring practice. It disrupted summer the season.

If anything, though, it only strengthened Gunnell's resolve. He did everything he could to make himself better so the offense could perform and the team could win.

when we were going to play, or if we were going to play," Mazzone said, "he never took a day off."

Dogged determination

Pressure? Grant Gunnell is having a blast.

After months and months of Zoom meetings, at-home workouts, individual drills and socially in handy when Arizona opens the distanced throwing sessions – all enjoyable and beneficial in their without fans in the stands, Gun-were sophomores: Gunnell and In only his second season at UA, Grant Gunnell has emerged as one of the team's leaders. He made three starts last season as a freshman.

KELLY PRESNELL / ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Grant Gunnell threw for nine touchdowns and one interception as a freshman, and had 352 yards and a touchdown in a 20-17 win over UCLA in his first career start.

what he loves most.

go against the defense live, see how through those rough waters. the offense is going, get through some growing pains," Gunnell you're going to have lows," Gun-transfer in late September, Gunnell of reach. said. "There's nothing better than nell said. "You have to learn how led the recruitment effort to bring playing football."

workouts. It delayed the start of have many other hobbies. One of cause the whole offense is gonna Laie changed his mind the next day. them is bowling. Another illustrates his willingness to take on responsibility.

> Gunnell has an 8-month-old English Labrador named Junior.

"He's like a son to me," said "Even with the unknowns of Gunnell, who turns 20 in late No-> Gunnell has lost several pairs of shoes and a pillow. Junior is apt to get in the trash. "It's definitely taught me a lot of Tom Brady.

patience." Gunnell said. "He's gotlove him, but he gets on my nerves."

season at Utah on Saturday. Even

"Right now it's the best time of multiple points. He knows it will not. In Gunnell's case, his actions in which Gunnell shared time with football. It's just very, very im- my life, getting to go out there and be up to him to steer the offense speak louder than those words.

Gunnell concedes he doesn't anyone else see you down, bebe down."

with an unexpected training opportunity. Usually during the offseason, quarterbacks are in charge of organizing player-run practices. This offseason, Gunnell had to Dennis Polian to craft the meskeep his teammates engaged and sage. Gunnell then posted it on his Junior likes to chew things. enthused when they were spread about the country. He'd send inspirational texts, quoting movies

'Because you're not seeing guy. ten some stuff he shouldn't have. I them every day, you've got to put Those coping skills will come cate with your teammates," veteran center Josh McCauley said. "It builds a stronger bond."

Players and coaches commonly adversity at some point. Probably ership ability, whether it's real or to (rise) above them. You can't let him back, calling Laie multiple times and having dinner with him.

When the Wildcats followed The pandemic provided Gunnell the lead of their USC brethren and penned a letter to California Gov. Gavin Newsom seeking aid to get the Pac-12 season going, Gunnell have as much pressure on me." worked with UA Chief of Staff Twitter feed.

"He's very loyal," Mazzone said. "Relationships are important to he's ready for that role. and his quarterbacking role model, him. His teammates are important

"He has a lot of the qualities forth that effort to ... communi- that they don't measure at the fense. He's taken leadership and measure how high you jump, how ing on. fast you are, how far you can throw own ways - Gunnell again is doing nell and the Wildcats will face praise quarterbacks for their lead- of times you need those. But those these games."

don't guarantee you're going to be successful.

"If you look back at most successful quarterbacks, they have a lot of the traits that you can't measure. Grant has those things."

Greater expectations

Pressure? Grant Gunnell knows it's coming.

Although he prepared as if he were the starter last season, Gunnell is the starter now. That changes everyone's expectations.

They were minimal when Gunnell made his first career start against UCLA, subbing for the injured Khalil Tate. Gunnell exceeded them by passing for 352 yards and a touchdown in a 20-17 victory over the Bruins.

Gunnell started the Oregon and Utah games late in the season. No one blamed him for those defeats, even though Arizona scored only 13 total points.

Those were two of several games Tate. Sometimes the contests When offensive lineman Don- were close when Gunnell entered; "You're going to have downs, ovan Laie announced his intent to sometimes they already were out Gunnell finished with sterling numbers: a 9-to-1 touchdown-to-interception ratio, a 65.2% completion rate and a 150.18 efficiency rating. The latter two are top-five marks in UA history.

However, as Gunnell himself noted, "I was the backup. I didn't

Now, as the face of the program, every pass he throws and every decision he makes will be scrutinized.

Gunnell's teammates believe

"Last year he was going back to him. He's a really team-oriented and forth with Khalil, coming in and out," receiver Jamarye Joiner said. "This year it's really his of-(scouting) combine. They can ownership of everything that's go-

"He's really taking charge ... and it. Those are good to have, and a lot that's what we need in order to win

The Arizona Wildcats charge onto the field before last year's game against Texas Tech. Kevin Sumlin's second season as the UA's coach started promisingly, but ended with seven consecutive losses. This year's seven-game act Utah and a new full-time starter, Grant Gunnell, under center. UA's young, thin defense must improve for the Wildcats to exceed expectations.

Pac-12's cold open: League schedule pays little attention to temps

Those who composed the Pac-12's 2020 football schedule are tempting the weather gods like never before in league history. They scheduled Utah to play at Colorado at 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 11. The average low in Boulder on Dec. 11 is 23 degrees.

They scheduled Cal to play at chi-chilly Martin Stadium in Pullman, Washington, on Dec. 12. Let's just say the coldest kickoff temperature in Arizona's modern Pac-10/12 history was 34 degrees at Washington State on Nov. 8, 1986.

And then there's an Oregon State at Utah game on Dec. 5. Average low in Salt Lake City on Dec. 5 is 29 degrees.

The general public is not expected to be allowed to attend Pac-12 games this year. Sitting at home, warm and toasty, often makes view ing a Snow Bowl or a Below Freezing Bowl, more enjoyable to watch. More? The Pac-12 must still add a full weekend of games Dec. 18-19 Let's just hope it leaves Pullman, Boulder and Salt Lake City out of it. Arizona is scheduled to play Arizona State in Tucson on Dec. 11 which will be the latest regular-season game in program history. Again, the discomfort from potential cold will be inflicted on players, coaches and security personnel, not fans. Here's a look at the five regular-season Arizona Stadium games played on the latest dates in December:

• Dec. 9, 1939: Arizona vs. Loyola Marymount. Low temperature: 46.

• Dec. 6, 1941: Arizona vs. Utah. Low temperature: 45.

• Dec. 6, 1947: Arizona vs. Utah. Low temperature: 46.

• Dec. 5, 1970: Arizona vs. Arizona State. Low temperature: 36.

• Dec. 5, 2008: Arizona vs. Arizona State. Low temperature: 43.

DAVID ZALUBOWSKI / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Longtime NFL assistant coach Bill Musgrave is in his first season as Cal's offensive coordinator.

Introducing six new offensive coordinators

The Pac-12 has 11 new coordinators for the 2020 season — six offensive, five defensive — which is probably the most, or close to it, in league history.

There are no offensive coordinators, new or old, with reputations that have made them recognizable to the average fan. That is a big change. In 2008, for example, Pac-12 offensive coordinators included Chip Kelly at Oregon, Norm Chow at UCLA, Sonny Dykes at Arizona, Steve Sarkisian at USC and David Shaw at Stanford. All went on to become head coaches.

The returning OCs include Arizona's Noel Mazzone, UCLA's Justin Frye, Stanford's Tavita Pritchard, Utah's well-traveled Andy Ludwig, Oregon State's Brian Lindgren and USC's 35-year-old Graham Harrell, who was hired from the North Texas Mean Green. No marguee names there.

Here's a look at the league's six new offensive coordinators: • ZAK HILL, Arizona State: Arrived from Boise State with a background at Hawaii and Eastern Washington. Hill played briefly in the NFL from 1997-2000.

• BILL MUSGRAVE, Cal: The most well-known of the new offensive coordinators. Musgrave was Oregon's starting QB in the late 1980s, long before the Ducks were prominent. Musgrave, 52. has bounced around the NFL for 17 years.

• DARREN CHIAVERINI, Colorado: At 43, Chiaverini is coaching his alma mater after stops at Texas Tech and UCLA. He has a lot

• JOE MOORHEAD, Oregon: A Fordham man, Moorhead is the rare under-the-radar coordinator at Autzen Stadium He has coached at Pitt, Akron, UConn, Penn State and spent two uneven years as head coach at Mississippi State.

• JOHN DONOVAN. Washington: Another low-profile coordinator. Donovan, 46, has mostly been an obscure coach at, among other places, Villanova, Georgia Tech, Maryland, Vanderbilt and Penn State. • BRIAN SMITH, Washington State: A former Hawaii Rainbow Warrior, Smith's path to the Pac-12 went through Occidental, Portland State, Oregon State and Cal Lutheran.

HANSEN'S GUIL TO THE 2020 COLLEGE FOOTBALL SEASON

Picking the Pac-12

Four opinions on

SOUTH DIVISION

1. USC (6-1): Ouarterback Kedon Slovis is league's most feared player.

STATE (5-2): If QB Jayden Daniels stays healthy, it'll be a big year.

2. ARIZONA

3. UTAH (4-3):

year rebuilding

phase.

Utes are in a one-

4. UCLA (3-4):

Is this the end for

Chip Kelly?

5. ARIZONA

(2-5): Beating Colorado is a must.

6. COLORADO

cold in Boulder.

(1-6): Going to be

NORTH DIVISION

Justin Wilcox's club

is the real deal.

1. CAL (6-1):

Ducks have quarterback uncertain-

(4-3):

Star players have been few and far between at Arizona

Since the league expanded to 12 teams in 2011, the Pac-12 all-conference first team has included 244 players — an average of 27 selections per season. Among the league's

5. WASHING-

6. WASHINGTON

STATE (1-6): Mike

Leach knew when

to get out.

• GARRETT WILSON: The five-star receiver from Lake Travis High School in Austin caught 30 passes for 432 yards and five TDs as an Ohio State freshman. He caught a team-high seven passes in the Buckeves' opener against Nebraska.

Grant Gunnell's prolific high school career suggests that he

Gunnell's background

suggests big things

back on the USA Today 2018 list.

might have what it takes to run Arizona's pass-heavy offense.

Arizona sophomore quarterback Grant Gunnell is the most high ly recruited QB in the school's Pac-10/12 years. He was not only a four-star prospect from Houston's St. Pius X High School — home to former NFL quarterback and Denver Broncos head coach Gary

No previous UA quarterback — not Nick Foles, not Willie Tuitama, not Keith Smith, not Tom Tunnicliffe — arrived in Tucson with a

The other four skill-position players on USA Today's All-Texas team of 2018 were similarly high-profile prospects:

Kubiak — but Gunnell was the first-team All-Texas prep quarter-

KELLY PRESNELL / ARIZONA DAILY STAR 2019

• ZACH EVANS: The running back from North Shore High School was a five-star recruit who chose TCU over Texas and LSU. Wilson, a freshman, is in TCU's running-back rotation.

JASE MCCLELLAN: The five-star receiver from Aledo signed with Alabama and is redshirting.

• THEO WEASE: The five-star receiver from Allen has already caught 18 passes for 233 yards in five games for the Oklahoma

Gunnell originally committed to play for Kevin Sumlin at Texas A&M, then picked Arizona once Sumlin was fired by the Aggies. It's unlikely Gunnell would be starting at A&M this year; senior Kellen Mond has started 39 games for the Aggies with 8,363 passing yards and 1,361 rushing yards and 82 total touchdowns.

Arizona's losing streak enters danger zone

The UA concluded the 2019 season with a school-record seven consecutive conference losses. The school record for consecutive losses, all games, is eight, set by John Mackovic's 2003 team that Given its low profile, Arizona is entering dreaded territory. If it goes 0-7 this season, it would be challenging the list of chronic losers in Pac-12 history. Here's the list of conference-game losing streaks to avoid:

Oregon State lost 20 consecutive league games from 1979-82 and actually had an 0-29-1 period that ran through 1983. The Beavers also had a 14-game losing streak from 1996-98 and a 13-game conference losing streak from 2016-18.

Washington State went 0-9 to finish the 2009 conference season and 0-7 to start the 2010 season.

Washington, of all teams, lost 14 league games in succession, going 0-8 at the finish of the 2004 season and Colorado went 0-8 to conclude its second Pac-12 season, 2012, and 0-6 to start the following year.

losing streak, stretching to 1957, is three games.

• NOTE: Arizona State has never lost more than five consecutive conference games since entering the Pac-10 in 1978. Oregon's longest streak is seven, in 1980-81, and USC's longest league

Cal was 0-8 to end the 2001 league season, sandwiched by four more conference losses in 2000 and 2002.

Pac-12 football in 2020 Since Chip Kelly went 46-7 as Oregon's head coach from 2009-12, he has gone off the rails. Kelly's four years in the NFL produced a 28-35 record. His two seasons at UCLA have been 3-9 and 4-8 busts. Kelly had all the resources at Oregon, but once he got to the share-the-load NFL and now to perennial football underachiever UCLA, he has found his "system" works better with elite talent. At 57, Kelly has seen his best years. What was Colorado athletic director Rick George thinking when he hired Karl Dorrell to be the Buffaloes' new head coach? Dorrell was 35-27 in five years at UCLA; the Bruins finished in the AP Top 25 poll once — 16th in 2005 — before he was fired. Dorrell has since been a rank-

How long will Herm Edwards stay at ASU? He is 66; he surely doesn't the $3.5 million-per-year salary. The best guess is that he'll coach sophomore QB Jayden Daniels through his college days and then step away, attempting to hand the Sun Devils program to former Arizona linebacker Antonio Pierce, who is clearly being groomed for the job. Big question: Would Arizona ever be bold enough to try to scuttle ASU's plan and bring Pierce back home to Tucson to replace Kevin Sumlin? The TV networks and Pac-12 shareholders regret the cancellation of four made-for-TV games: USC at the cancellation of four induction in games Alabama; Michigan at Washington; Ohio State at Oregon; Stanford at Notre Dame. But those would've been potentially four losses for the league, further staining its football reputation. The most regrettable cancellation was BYU at Utah, which might be the most intense rivalry any league member enjoys. BYU's rise into the top 10 this year might be a good story, but the Cougars' soft schedule — they play Navy, Texas State, Troy, UTSA, Houston and Louisiana Tech — is such that even Arizona would likely be 6-0 playing that group of opponents.

ERIC GAY / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Kyle Whittingham begins his 16th season as Utah's coach.

Utah's Whittingham keeps defying the odds

In a century of football for Pac-12 schools, no head coach has remained at that school for more than 22 years. Utah's Kyle Whittingham begins his 16th season at Utah, by far the longest of any conference coach. He is 61.

Stanford's David Shaw is next, entering his ninth season. Other than Whittingham, the average tenure for the league's head coaches this year is 2½ years. Here's a list of the longest-tenured head football coaches at Pac-

12 schools and at what age they departed that job: • 22 YEARS: Frank Kush, ASU. Fired at age 50 in 1979. • 20 YEARS: Terry Donahue, UCLA. Retired at age 49 in 1995. • 18 YEARS: Rich Brooks, Oregon. Left to coach in NFL at age 53

• 18 YEARS: Don James, Washington. Retired at age 60 in 1993. • 18 YEARS: Jim Owens, Washington. Fired at age 47 in 1974. • 16 YEARS: John McKay, USC. Left to coach the NFL's Buccaneers at age 52 in 1976.

• 16 YEARS: Len Casanova, Oregon. Retired in 1967 at age 61. • 15 YEARS: Whittingham. • 14 YEARS: Dick Tomey, Arizona. Parted ways with school in race rages on After the coronavirus pandemic shut down pocketbooks.

• 14 YEARS: Mike Bellotti, Oregon. Retired at age 58 in 2009. • 14 YEARS: Mike Price, WSU. Left to coach at Alabama at age 56

and Utah, the league's two rising powers.

Pac-12's arms

spring practices at all Pac-12 schools, many in the league also began protecting their But the arms race didn't stop at Oregon

Oregon will unveil its new $12 million scoreboard when the Ducks open the season at Autzen Stadium against Stanford on Nov. 7. The Ducks' excessive spending hasn't changed. The 12,276-square-foot scoreboard will be the largest in college football, more than double the size of Arizona's once-grand video board at Arizona Stadium. When unveiled five years ago, the UA scoreboard was the largest in the Pac-12, at 5,352 square feet. That was soon surpassed by Sun Devil Stadium's 5,419-square-foot video board, and by the new USC scoreboard, 6,000 square feet, at the remodeled Los Angeles Coliseum. Utah has continued with its expansion of the south end of Rice-Eccles Stadium, an $80 million project that will increase capacity to 51,000 fans — up from 45,000 — and feature a video board of about 6,500 square feet.

IScooby Wright in 2014; and J.J. Taylor in 2018. Here are the teams with the most first-team selections over the last nine

• USC: 36 • WASHINGTON: 35 • OREGON: 29 • ARIZONA STATE: 18

• UTAH: 39

• UCLA: 11

• STANFORD: 37

• CAL: 10 • WASHINGTON STATE: 10 • COLORADO: 6 OREGON STATE: 5

 ARIZONA: 4 Those numbers mirror the winning percentages in league games over the same period. If you have star-level players, you win more often. Duh, right?

12 schools, Arizona ranks last with four first-teamers: Ka'Deem Carey in 2012 and 2013; Utah, Stanford, USC and Oregon combined to have 175 of those 244 all-league wins over those nine seasons: • STANFORD: 58-23 • OREGON: 57-24 • USC: 56-25

picks, or 72%. It should be no surprise that those five schools rank No. 1-5 in • WASHINGTON: 49-32 • UTAH: 42-39

period: • COLORADO: 20-61 • OREGON STATE: 23-58

Here's the bottom tier during that

• CAL: 26-55 • ARIZONA: 32-49

• Oct. 29, 1949: The Wildcats played at Denver; a mix of rain, sleet and snow at Hilltop Stadium saw the Pioneers beat Arizona 20-6 with a low temperature of 31. The Star's game report said fans were "shivering

• On Nov. 14, 1959: Arizona lost 22-15 to Air Force in a game played in Boulder, Colorado. Temperatures dropped to 5 photograph showed UA players throwing snowballs the night before kickoff. • On Nov. 16, 1968: Visiting Arizona beat Utah 16-15 in a full-on snowstorm. The game time temperature was 37. The Star

• On Nov. 8, 1986: Arizona beat Washington State in Pullman 33-6 when it was 28 degrees at the end of game. It snowed heavily the day before the game, with snow lining the field in the freezing afternoon game

Another snow day for Wildcats?

Arizona has played four "snow games" in its football history:

reported "a howling storm."

The coldest regular-season game a Pac-12 team has played is believed to be Colorado's

> Nov. 2, 1991 home game against Nebraska. It was 12 degrees at kickoff. The Buffaloes played Utah in Boulder on Nov. 28, 2015, when it was 26 degrees at kickoff, with snow flurries throughout the game

degrees the morning of the game; a Star

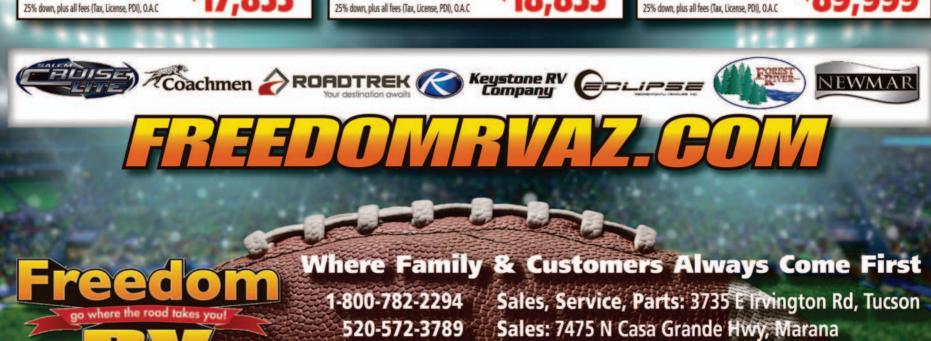

Service, Parts: 6260 N Travel Center, Tucson

freedomrvaz.com

Jimmy Lake's first head coaching position will start in the midst of a pandemic as he takes over for Chris Petersen at Washington.

PAC-12'S STRANGE SPRINT MAY BE ESPECIALLY HARD ON NEW COACHES

By Jon Gold

SPECIAL TO THE ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Strange, the Half-Year of the Weird, the West Coast Collision. Seven games in seven weeks, baby, a conference season at 1.5 speed. One heck of a sprint.

believe it?

spin. A million-and-one questions. Everything feels out of fo-

So focus on the fact that three Pac-12 teams are breaking in new head coaches in the midst of utter chaos. Imagine that.

Imagine being Nick Rolovich, already reeling from trading the But how well were they able to repristine coastline of Honolulu for late this summer on Zoom conferthe barren wasteland that is Pullman, Washington, and having to somehow follow the reign of rell, who, compared to Lake and Mike Leach. Imagine untangling Rolovich, might as well be a Pacthat ball of fishing line. Where is 12 historian. The new Colorado ly? Inheriting a talented but slopgentrification of outer Mongolia loes. After Mel Tucker abscond- shelves in 2019, improving by one Welcome to the Season of the in 1292? What's he supposed to do ed to Michigan State, all Dorrell win. At that rate, this year he gets with all the swords?

supposed to do with Washington appearance would be nice, too, Who knows? All UCLA fans know Pigskin in a pandemic. Can you the Pac-12's most prolific passer, a 10-4 finish in 2016. and without an entire spring foot-It's enough to make your head ball campaign, to boot?

Or how about Jimmy Lake, who takes over for Chris Petersen at as a full-time defensive coordi-41 years old, presumably able to ences?

And then there's Karl Dor-needs to do is provide a warm to rearrange the cans of tomato More importantly: What is he blanket and a kind smile. A bowl State's offense, already tasked considering Colorado has gone with replacing Anthony Gordon, 5-7 in three straight seasons after > team in need of a jump-start, though.

Look no further than Tucson, Washington after only two years where the Wildcats backslid from actually will be a conference 5-7 to 4-8 in Kevin Sumlin's secnator? Lake, like Rolovich, is only ond season. Sumlin could've used a full season worth of competirelate better with his players than tion to prove his staying power coaches a full two decades older. in the desert, but six games will have to suffice. Can the Noel Mazzone-Grant Gunnell connection ton College transfer Anthony emerge enough to save a handful Brown who assumes the starting of jobs? That's one big question.

Here's another: What in the world is going on with Chip Kel-on Kublai Khan's effects on the Washington and with the Buffa- in 2018. He started restocking the sauce. And next year he'll cook. aside from annual abject frustration – is that they expected a lot more than seven wins in two The Buffaloes aren't the only years when Kelly started.

And seven wins is exactly what the cream of the Pac-12 crop is seeking this year, assuming there championship to cap this short season. Oregon, USC and Utah are all in the running, even if each UCLA in the regular season and team has glaring needs to address, and little time to address them.

Will it be Tyler Shough or Bosquarterback role for Oregon, replacing the erstwhile Justin Herbert? Who is going to help shore up a USC defense that allowed an he supposed to send Leach's 117 coach both played and coached py UCLA roster from Jim Mora uncharacteristic 29.4 points per books about the Russo-Persian at UCLA, with previous assistant Jr., Kelly cleaned the cupboard of game last season, including 140 War of 1804-1813? Or his study coaching stops at Arizona State, malcontents in a three-win debut combined against Oregon and days.

2020 PAC-12 SCHEDULE

Start times and TV listings TBA unless noted

Saturday

Arizona State at USC, 10 a.m. (Ch. 11) Arizona at Utah, 2 p.m. (ESPNU) UCLA at Colorado, 5 p.m. (ESPN2) Stanford at Oregon, 5:30 p.m. (Ch. 9 Washington at Cal, 8:30 p.m. (ESPN) Washington State at Oregon State,

Friday, Nov. 13 Utah at UCLA, 8:30 p.m. (Fox Sports 2

Saturday, Nov. 14

Cal at Arizona State Colorado at Stanford Oregon at Washington State Oregon State at Washington USC at Arizona

Friday, Nov. 20

UCLA at Oregon, 8:30 p.m. (ESPN

Saturday, Nov. 21

Arizona at Washington Arizona State at Colorado Cal at Oregon State USC at Utah

Washington State at Stanford

Friday, Nov. 27

Oregon at Oregon State Stanford at Cal, 2 p.m. (Ch. 11) Washington at Washington State

Saturday, Nov. 28 Arizona at UCLA Colorado at USC Utah at Arizona State

Friday, Dec. 4 Washington State at

Saturday, Dec. 5

Colorado at Arizona UCLA at Arizona State Stanford at Washington Oregon at Cal

Oregon State at Utah

Friday, Dec. 11

Arizona State at Arizona, 5:30 p.m. (ESPN) Utah at Colorado, 7:30 p.m. (Fox Sports 1)

Saturday, Dec. 12 Cal at Washington Stat

Oregon State at Stanford USC at UCLA Washington at Oregon

Friday, Dec. 18 Pac-12 Championship Game, time TBD (Ch. 11)

Saturday, Dec. 19

Conference games featuring non-divisional champions; pairings TBD.

Iowa in the Holiday Bowl? Can junior Devin Brumfield and sophomore Jordan Wilmore pair up to fill even one of Zack Moss' shoes at Utah, where the now-Buffalo Bills running back finished with a school-record 4,067 rushing yards and 38 touchdowns?

We've got a thousand more questions and about zero answers. Which feels about right these

RotaryTCCS.com

ASU HAS TO ADJUST TO NEW OFFENSE, DEFENSE IN EDWARDS' THIRD SEASON

By John Marshall

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

TEMPE - Herm Edwards has changed perceptions about Arizona State football, both with wins on the field and victories on the recruiting trail.

To continue the upward trajectory, the Sun Devils will not only have to hit the ground running during the Pac-12's pandemic-shortened season, they'll have to adjust to new schemes on both sides of the ball without the benefit of spring football.

"Putting in a new offense and defense, as far as applying it, it's in but the retention of the players (isn't)," Edwards said. "That said, every week you're going to have a different plan of what you're going to do defensively and offensively. I'm iust excited about seeing what it's going to look like."

Arizona State won seven games and played in a bowl game in 2018, exceeding outside expectations in its first season under Edwards, the former NFL player, coach and commentator.

The Sun Devils took another step last season, winning eight games and the Sun Bowl.

Arizona State has some talent back on offense this season, led by sophomore quarterback Jayden Daniels and senior receiver Frank Darby, but will have to replace running back Eno Benjamin. The defense is loaded on the back end despite the loss of All-Pac-12 cornerback Kobe Williams and the line will be anchored by Jermayne Lole, who had 2020 class. a team-high 6.5 sacks last season.

Edwards also made big inroads on the recruiting

ROSS D. FRANKLIN / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS 2019

Arizona State could compete for the Pac-12 South title with coach Herm Edwards and quarterback Jayden Daniels this season. The Sun Devils will be tested right off the bat with an early kickoff at USC in the season opener.

ARIZONA STATE'S 2020 SCHEDULE

Time and television are TBA, unless noted: Date Opponent Time (TV)
Saturday	at USC	10 a.m. (Ch. 11)
Nov. 14	CAL
Nov. 21	at Colorado
Nov. 28	UTAH
Dec. 5	UCLA
Dec. 11 (Fri.)	at Arizona	5:30 p.m. (ESPN)
Dec. 18/19	TBA

schemes.

Wanting to capitalize on the roster with a top-25 Edwards fired offensive coordinator Rob Likens and The key will be getting brought in Zak Hill from them all comfortable in new Boise State to run the offense. Hill was adept at using multiple formations trail, adding talent across Daniels' multiple talents, and personnel groups with defense because I've been more season with plenty of games against California, in Tempe.

Arizona State moved former NFL linebacker Antonio Pierce and former Cincinnati Bengals coach Marvin it." Lewis into co-defensive coafter Danny Gonzales left for New Mexico.

Instead of the 3-5-5 defense the Sun Devils ran under Gonzales, they'll be in a pro-style 4-3 that should help some of the less-experienced linemen up front.

"I've got a pretty good three TDs. idea of what it looks like on the Broncos and Edwards is in this system numerous hype, expected to be one of Utah and UCLA.

hoping he can do the same times," Edwards said. "Offensively, it's very intriguing to me, kind of some things we're doing and how un-> starter, throwing for 2,748 yards and 17 touchdowns Week 3. with two interceptions. The

the Pac-12's best quarter-

"The thing I can't stress upon him enough is we can't get involved in the outside noises and the expectations that are all of a sudden put on (him)," Edwards said. "The playing part will take care of itself. I told him that I just want him to enjoy it. I want him to enjoy being a student-athlete and don't get caught up in anything else. Act like you're a freshman again. Just go out there and have fun with it."

Darby's turn: Arizona State will have a big hole at receiver to fill with Brandon Aiyuk playing in the NFL.

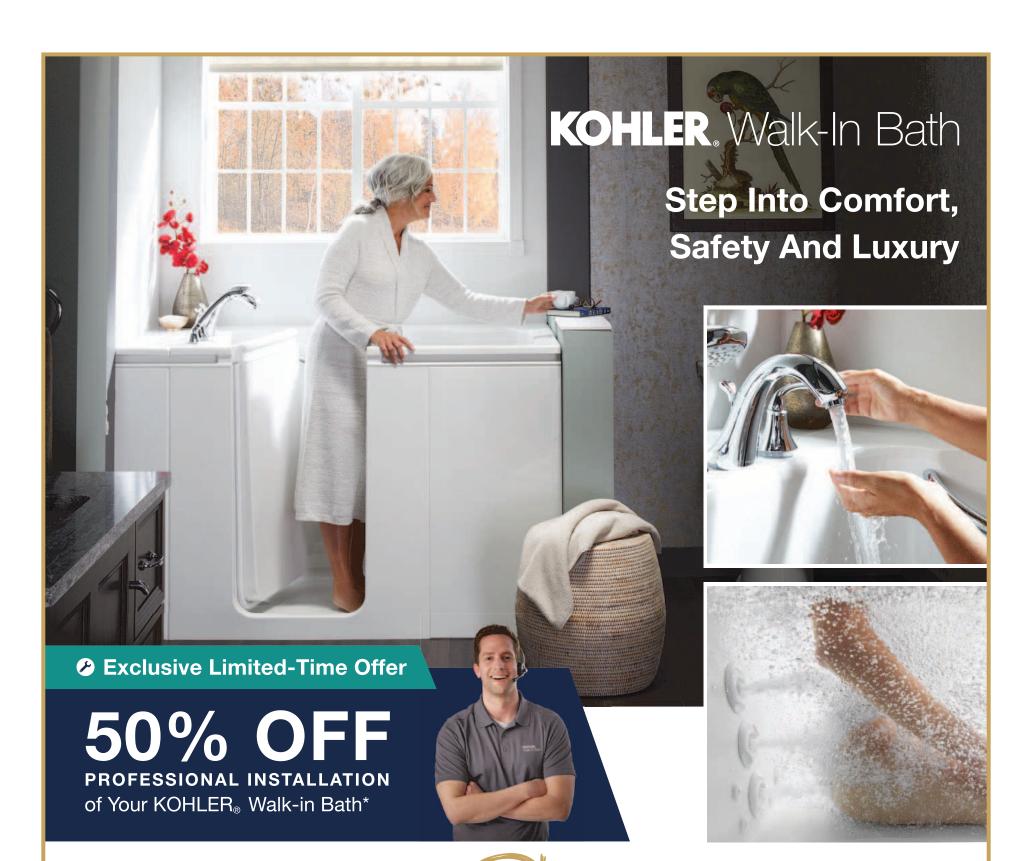

Darby could be the bene-

The 6-1, 200-pound senior had 28 catches for 597 yards and eight TDs last season. He was the conference leader in yards per catch at 21.3 a year ago and figures to be Daniels' prime target this season.

Virus update: While the university saw a big uptick in COVID-19 cases with the start of classes, the football team has been vigilant under Edwards and his staff with no reported cases.

Schedule scramble: The Sun Devils lost two games that would have likely eased them into the season and built confidence with the folds. I'm excited to watch rejiggered Pac-12 schedule, against Northern Arizona Dazzling Daniels: Dan- and UNLV. Arizona State ordinator roles this season iels had a superb freshman lost what figured to be its season as Arizona State's first test of the season, a home game against BYU in

Now, the Sun Devils will lanky, 6-foot-3 quarter- jump right into the flames back was adept at keeping with a 10 a.m. game (a new plays alive with his legs and Pac-12 time slot) at USC. rushed for 319 yards and Arizona State also has road games against Colorado and Daniels enters his sopho- rival Arizona, with home

$$$ FINANCING AVAILABLE

Ask About Our Flexible Payment Plans

Call for your FREE quote and save today!

(520) 352-7477

*Walk-In Bath installed in as little as a day. Financing available to qualified purchasers. Contact your local dealer for financing details. Limited time offer. Valid through November 30, 2020, at participating dealers only. Not available in AK; HI; Nassau Cty, NY; Suffolk Cty, NY; Westchester Cty, NY; and Buffalo Cty, NY. Also may not be available in other areas. 50% off installation with purchase of KOHLER Belay Walk-In Bath. Cannot be combined with any other advertised offer

Arizona State guarterback Jayden Daniels starred as a true freshman in 2019, and is expected to be even better this fall.

MATT YORK / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ALL THE BIG QUESTIONS, TOP PLAYERS FOR WHAT WILL BE A ZANY PAC-12 SEASON

By Jon Gold SPECIAL TO THE ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Absolutely zany. Do any two words better sum up the state of the Pac-12 as it heads into its strangest season yet? From A to Z, things are going to be interesting in the conference. Take a look:

IS FOR ADIOS: Say goodbye to Mike Leach and to Chris Petersen. Sayonara, Mel Tucker. Justin Herbert and Zack Moss and Laviska Shenault Jr.? All gone. This is a year of rebirth for the conference.

B Is FOR BUZZ: Or would it be L for lack of buzz? The Pac-12 only boasts two ranked teams, and it just feels like the conference is a complete afterthought as the last Power 5 conference to kick off. Will the Pac-12 be completely ignored this year? Or only mostly ignored, like usual?

IS FOR CHIP: Much like his defensive coordinator, UCLA's Chip Kelly is on thin ice after a brutal start to his time in Westwood. He's 7-17. Did anyone expect that out of one of the conference's shiniest stars?

IS FOR DORRELL: Back for Round 2 in the Pac-12, Karl Dorrell will be tasked with making Colorado fans forget about Mel Tucker in a hurry. Tucker bounced for Michigan State after just one season in Boulder, bewildering Buff backers on the way out. Dorrell, who found only moderate success at UCLA despite recruiting riches, has a tough gig ahead of him.

IS FOR EVAN: Or, rather, E was for Evan? Cal's Evan Weaver exited last year after a conference-record 181 tackles, leaving a massive gap in the middle for the Bears. Look for Cameron Goode and Kuony Deng to fill the gap.

IS FOR FORTUNATE: The chasm between the scheduling haves and have-nots is the Grand Canyon. Washington State must tangle with both USC and Oregon. So too will UCLA. But the Trojans and Ducks avoid each other, and thus, are scheduled to face no ranked teams.

IS FOR GUNNELL: For Arizona fans, 2020 will be all about Grant Gunnell. After looking impressive last year in Khalil Tate's place, the pocket passer could thrive under offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone.

IS FOR HERM: Arizona State has looked impressive with Herm Edwards at the helm. Are the Sun Devils ready to take another step behind the longtime NFLer?

IS FOR IDENTITY: Is UCLA a quick-twitch, pass-happy offense under Chip Kelly? Will Wazzu still "Air Raid" it out in the absence of Mike Leach? Can Jimmy Lake install a more consistent defense in Washington? This is the season for several Pac-12 teams to establish an identity.

IS FOR JAYDEN: Jayden Daniels wasn't perfect as a freshman for the Sun Devils, but he was close. A 17-to-2 touchdown-to-interception ratio as a freshman is remarkable. Can he build on it in this shortened season?

YOUNG KWAK / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Washington State hired Nick Rolovich away from Hawaii to replace Mike Leach.

ORLANDO RAMIREZ / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

RON JENKINS / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Oregon offensive lineman Penei Sewell was selected to The Associated Press preseason All-America first team before opting out of the season.

IS FOR KEDON: If Jayden Daniels was dangerously efficient as a freshman, Kedon Slovis — a Scottsdale native — was equally as prolific for USC. Inheriting the keys to the potent USC offense upon J.T. Daniels' early season injury, Slovis threw for 3,500 yards and 30 touchdowns with nine picks en route to conference offensive freshman of the year honors.

IS FOR LAKE: Jimmy Lake takes over at Washington for Chris Petersen, who called it quits after six seasons in Seattle. Lake came to U-Dub with Petersen after two years at Boise State, and he jumped from DB coach to co-defensive coordinator to defensive coordinator to head coach.

IS FOR MURAO: Lake has one major box checked — stud young offensive lineman. Myles Murao is considered one of the top centers in the country, and he could be a fixture up front for the foreseeable future.

IS FOR NONSTOP: One thing you've got to love about this strange Pac-12 football season — no bye weeks. Just seven weeks of madness. That'll do.

IS FOR ODIGHIZUWA: UCLA needs someone to step up on the defensive side, and Osa Odighizuwa might just be the man for the job. The younger brother of former UCLA stud Owamagbe Odighizuwa isn't quite so little — he's 6 feet 2 inches and 279 pounds — but now is the time for him to make a real impact.

IS FOR PENEI: There's only one way to watch Oregon's Penei Sewell this fall: YouTube, where a video about him — "Most Dominant College O-Lineman of the Decade" — has more than 175,000 views. Sewell has opted out because of the pandemic, but figures to be an NFL star, and soon.

IS FOR QUESTION: This whole list has been chock full of questions, because this may be the most perplexing season in Pac-12 history. It's not just a pandemic. It's Oregon in flux without Justin Herbert. It's USC trying to regain its reign. It's backs against the wall, and who's going to bounce from the brink.

IS FOR ROLOVICH: Well, where do we begin? Nick Rolovich, a former Hawaii coach and player, arrives on the mainland with hopes of taking Washington State to even greater heights.

IS FOR SUMLIN: The heat is on for Kevin Sumlin, who saw the Wildcats regress last year from 5-7 in 2018 to 4-8 and 2-7 in conference play last season. Those numbers are unacceptable for those Arizona fans desperate to turn around two decades of frustration.

IS FOR TURK: A punter, on this coveted list? Considering Michael Turk might just change college football, maybe it's not so crazy. For the first time, the NCAA restored the eligibility of a player who declared for the NFL Draft, hired an agent and participated in the NFL Combine and draft. Turk wasn't selected, went unsigned, and petitioned to return to ASU. Shockingly, the NCAA relented.

IS FOR UPSETS: Last year, ASU knocked off then-No. 15 Cal in Week 5; one week later, Stanford took out then-No. 15 Washington. Guess what happened the next week, when Oregon State hosted No. 15 Utah? The Utes won 52-7. Who'll pull off the upsets this year? Look out for Washington and Cal.

IS FOR VERDELL: Yes, Justin Herbert may be in the NFL, cashing checks and torching defenses for the Chargers. But The Oregon Ducks aren't barren. In fact, they boast perhaps the conference's most electric player in running back C.J. Verdell, who rushed for 1,018 yards on 202 carries.

IS FOR WALKER: Walker Little is, well, walking. Stanford's terrific offensive tackle has opted out of the season, one year after tearing his ACL in the first game of the 2019 season. The former all-conference and freshman co-offensive player of the year could have really helped a Stanford team breaking in a new QB.

IS FOR XAVIER: Incoming
Utah defensive end Xavier Carlton is a 6-6 specimen, the latest in the Utes' long lineage up front.

IS FOR YOUTH MOVEMENT:
Carlton isn't the only other new stud on the block. Between Oregon linebackers Justin Flowe (No. 6 overall prospect) and Noah Sewell (No. 13), USC wideout Gary Bryant Jr. (No. 46 overall prospect), Utah cornerback Clark Phillips III (No. 51) and Washington wideout Jalen McMillan (No. 67), a new crop of Pac-12 prodigies is ready

IS FOR ZANY: This is the weirdest season on record.
Off-again, on-again. Coaching changes. Seven games?! Buckle up for a weird and wild ride.

HERE'S A LOOK AT THE PAC-12, FROM ARIZONA TO WASHINGTON STATE

By Jon Gold SPECIAL TO THE ARIZONA DAILY STAR

ARIZONA WILDCATS

- 2019 record: 4-8, 2-7 in Pac-12 play
- · Head booker: Kevin Sumlin (9-15 in third season at Arizona. 95-58 in 12 seasons overall)
- · Stage time: Arizona Stadium (50,782 capacity)
- · Headliners: QB Grant Gunnell, WR Brian Casteel, WR Jamarye Joiner, OT Donovan Laie, DE Jalen Harris, DB Lorenzo Burns
- Warmup acts: DL Regen Terry, RB Jalen John
- Punchlines: Arizona has winnable tilts in back-to-back weeks at UCLA (Nov. 28) and hosting Colorado (Dec. 5)
- Hecklers: Is there a tougher slate to open the Pac-12 then the Cats' 1-2 punch at Utah (Nov. 7) and hosting USC (Nov. 14)?
- Gag reel: Arizona has been the punching bag of the Pac-12 for going on two decades. A startling fact for Wildcat fans: Arizona has lost more league games than any other conference team since 2000. Yikes. Last year, Arizona reeled off four straight wins — including wins over UCLA and at Colorado — before the wheels came off. The Cats will need to get more from an offense that averaged nine points over the final three games last year.

KELVIN KUO / THE ASSOCIATED PRESS 2019

UCLA quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson runs past Colorado linebacker Nate Landman during the first half of a game in Pasadena, California, last year. Thompson-Robinson is returning for his third season at quarterback.

ARIZONA STATE SUN DEVILS

- 2019 record: 8-5, 4-5 in Pac-12 play
- · Head booker: Herm Edwards (15-11 in third season at Arizona State, 15-11 in 2 seasons overall)
- Stage: Sun Devil Stadium (53,599 capacity)
- Headliners: QB Jayden Daniels, WR Frank Darby, OL Dohnovan West, DL Jermayne Lole, LB Merlin Robertson, DB

Celebrating Veterans

- Jack Jones, P Michael Turk Warmup acts: RB Daniyel
- Ngata, RB DeaMonte Trayanum, WR LV Bunkley-Shelton, ATH Alijah Badger, WR Johnny Wilson
- Punchlines: Arizona State will look to end its season on a high note with December clashes against UCLA and at Arizona.
- Hecklers: The Sun Devils could get a rude awakening to the season, and it'll come early: ASU travels to USC for a 10 a.m. tilt with the No. 21 Trojans on Saturday.
- Gag reel: Just when the Sun Devils started opening some eyes with a 5-1 start, including two top-20 wins in three weeks, Herm's crew lost four straight, including embarrassing mid-season losses to UCLA and Oregon State. If ASU can avoid hitting the skids, Edwards can continue to build on his already-promising start.

CAL GOLDEN

- 2019 record: 8-5, 4-5 in Pac-12 play
- Head booker: Justin Wilcox (20-18 in fourth season at Cal, 20-18 in three seasons overall)
- Stage time: California Memorial Stadium (82,467 capacity) • Headliners: QB Chase Garbers, RB Christopher Brown Jr., WR Nikko Remigio, OL Michael Saffell, OL Jake Curhan, LB Kuony Deng, LB
- Cameron Goode, • Warmup acts: TE D'Andre Rogers, RB Chris Street, WR Jeremiah Hunter, DB Deiuan Butler
- Punchlines: Cal has a forgiving early schedule — if Washington rolls over in Week 1 like it did last year — with ASU, Cal and Stanford in Weeks 2-4
- · Hecklers: The Bears could be 4-0 before they host No. 14
- Oregon on Dec. 5. • Gag reel: Wilcox is known as a terrific defensive coach, so it's no surprise that the Bears held nine teams to under 21 points last year. But that Cal offense — woof. The Bears ranked second-worst among Power 5 teams in offensive efficiency.

COLORADO BUFFALOES

- 2019 record: 5-7, 3-6 in Pac-12 play
- Head booker: Karl Dorrell

- (0-0 in first season at Colorado, 35-27 in 5 seasons overall)
- · Stage time: Folsom Field (50,183 capacity) Headliners: RB Alex Fontenot, WR K.D. Nixon, TE Brady Russell, OL William Sherman,
- DL Antonio Alfano, LB Nate Landman • Warmup acts: QB Brendon Lewis, RB Ashaad Clayton, DE Jason Harris, S Christian
- Gonzalez, OL Jake Wray Punchlines: The Buffaloes have a chance to get off on the right foot with UCLA and a road test at Stanford to open
- the season. Hecklers: Utah comes to Boulder on Dec. 11 for the Rumble in the Rockies, which the Utes dominated, 45-15, last year.
- Gag reel: Mel Tucker talked a big game and had the Buffalo faithful ready to run through a wall for him...then promptly bounced for Michigan State after one season. In comes Dorrell, whose previous head-coaching stint in the Pac-12 — at UCLA from 2003-2007 — was a bust.

OREGON DUCKS

- 2019 record: 12-2, 8-1 in Pac-12 play
- Head booker: Mario Cristobal (21-7 in third season at Oregon, 48-54 in nine seasons
- Stage time: Autzen Stadium (55,675 capacity)
- Headliners: QB Tyler Slough, RB CJ Verdell, WR Johnny Johnson, TE Cam McCormick, DL Kayvon Thibodeaux, LB Issac Slade-Matautia,
- Warmup acts: LB Justin Flowe, LB Noah Sowell, DB Dontae Manning, QB Jay Butterfield

- Punchlines: The Ducks may have the softest schedule in the country, if not the conference. Oregon's lone matchup with a Pac-12 South squad is UCLA — a gift from the scheduling gods.
- Hecklers: There isn't a blip in the bunch. At Wazzu? Never fun. At Corvallis? A test. But Oregon is set up for a big year — or, at least, a big half-year.
- Gag reel: The Ducks lose a ton of talent from last season's terrific squad - most noticeably quarterback Justin Herbert, defensive stud Troy Dye and four offensive line starters but Cristobal brought in a top-tier recruiting class.

OREGON STATE

- 2019 record: 5-7, 4-5 in Pac-
- Head booker: Jonathan Smith (7-17 in third season at Oregon State, 7-17 in two seasons overall)
- Stage time: Reser Stadium (43,643 capacity)
- Headliners: RB Jermar Jefferson, WR Trevon Bradford, OL Brandon Kipper, LB Hamilcar Rashed Jr., LB Omar Speights, DL Isaac Hodgins, DB David Morris
- Warmup acts: ATH Isaiah Newell, QB Chance Nolan, DB Alton Julian, DB Rezjohn Wright, QB Ben Gulbranson
- Punchlines: Oregon State opens the season with their neighbors to the north, as Washington State comes to town before a tussle with the Huskies. Win two straight and they could look at their first .500 season in ages.
- Hecklers: If the home-state Ducks have the easist schedule in the conference, OSU might have the hardest. First off, Oregon doesn't play itself, but the Beavers do. Also, the one Pac-12 South foe in the abbreviated season is a test at Utah, never easy.
- Gag reel: Coming off a promising five-win season, the Beavers will look to take another step forward despite having to replace the passing prowess of quarterback Jake Luton and stud wideout Isaiah Hodgins, who left Corvallis early for NFL riches.

See PAC-12, C15

Publish your

Veteran's picture in the Wednesday, November 11, 2020 Arizona Daily Star

Thank you Veterans!

We salute you!

$42 per box (1.556" x 1.5") Additional sizes available.

To place your ad, call 573-4343

Thank you Veterans! We salute you!

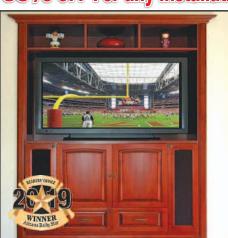

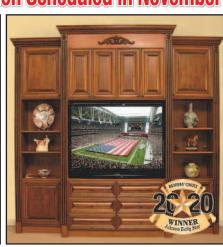

Arizona Daily Star

30% OFF For any Installation Scheduled in November

CLOSETS • HOME OFFICES • KITCHENS/LAUNDRY ROOMS GARAGES • WALL BEDS • HOME LIBRARIES • PANTRY

TUCSON SHOWROOM 520-326-7888 www.classyclosets.com 2010 Forbes Blvd. Tucson, AZ 85745

Call for a FREE Design & Estimate. Ask us about our Lifetime Guarantee.

traveling just up the road for the Apple Cup against Wazzu

— in the month-long stretch. Hecklers: If the middle of the schedule is kind to Washington, the two ends are less forgiving, as the Huskies open at Cal and close at Oregon. Gag reel: Chris Petersen is out, having failed to lift U-Dub to the heights once expected after he dominated at Boise State. In comes former defensive coordinator Jimmy Lake. Can Lake get the Huskies

PAC-12

Continued from Page C14

CARDINAL

- 2019 record: 4-8, 3-6 in Pac-12 play
- Head booker: David Shaw (86-34 in 10th season at Stanford, 86-34 in nine seasons overall)
- Stage time: Stanford Stadium (50,424 capacity)
- Headliners: RB Austin Jones, OL Drew Dalman, WR Simi Fehoko, LB Ricky Miezan
- Warmup acts: OL Myles Hinton, WR John Humphreys, OL Levi Rogers, OL Connor McLaughlin
- Punchlines: Daunting road tasks at Cal and Washington are sandwiched by winnable home tilts with Washington State and Oregon State.
- Hecklers: Well, someone had to open up with Oregon. The Ducks host the Cardinal on Nov. 7, and while the rest of the schedule is forgiving, a bad start can linger.
- Gag reel: Is the shine off David Shaw's program? Slipping to 4-8 — its worst season in more than a decade Stanford doesn't have the talent to retool quickly. Worse, the recruiting up front on both sides is nowhere near what it

UCLA BRUINS

- 2019 record: 4-8, 4-5 in Pac-12 play
- Head booker: Chip Kelly (7-17 in third season at UCLA, 53-24 in six seasons overall)
- Stage time: Rose Bowl (92,542 capacity)
- Headliners: QB Dorian Thompson-Robinson, RB Demetric Felton, WR Kyle Philips, OL Jake Burton, DL Osa Odighizuwa, DB Obi Eboh

Coach David Shaw, center, is in his 10th season at Stanford. Shaw's team will open its seven-game, conference-games-only season at Oregon on Nov. 7. The Cardinal in 86-34 under Shaw.

- Warmup acts: LB Damian Sellers, QB Parker McQuarrie, WR Logan Loya, LB Jonathan Vaughns
- Punchlines: The Bruins' season might be decided in a two-game swing against the Arizona schools, as the Wildcats come to the Rose Bowl on Nov. 28 and UCLA travels to Tempe a week later.
- Hecklers: Sandwiching those two games are matchups with Oregon and USC. Good luck with that.
- Gag reel: It's show-me time for Kelly, who has lost more than twice as many games as he's won in Westwood and now faces scrutiny over expenses. A Los Angeles Times report last month showed that the Bruins spent $5.4 million for non-travel-related meals last year. No other Pac-12 team spent more than $1.2

USC TROJANS

• 2019 record: 8-5. 7-2 in Pac-

- Head booker: Clay Helton (40-22 in sixth season at USC, 40-22 in five seasons overall)
- Stage time: Los Angeles Coliseum (55.675 capacity)
- · Headliners: QB Kedon Slovis, RB Vavae Malepeai, WR Tyler Vaughns, WR Amon-Ra St. Brown, OL Alijah Vera-Tucker. DE Drake Jackson, DB Talanoa Hufanga
- Warmup acts: WR Gary Bryant Jr., OL Jonah Monheim, DL Tuli Tuipulotu, WR Josh
- Punchlines: Much like Oregon, USC has a cupcake schedule that should put it in prime position to improve on a No. 21 ranking. Opening with the Arizona schools bodes
- Hecklers: The lone Pac-12 North opponent on the schedule — Washington State - doesn't have the horses to keep up with the Trojans, but with Mike Leach off to Mississippi State, it'll be an entirely new look.
- Gag reel: After a stunning 5-7 campaign in 2018, the Trojans bounced back to go 8-5 last year, but 8-5 doesn't cut it for USC faithful. Clay Helton's seat remains warm, but the soft schedule could cool it

UTAH UTES

- 2019 record: 11-3, 8-1 in Pac-12 play
- · Head booker: Kyle Whittingham (131-63 in 15th season at Arizona. 86-43 in 14 seasons overall)
- Stage time: Rice-Eccles Stadium (45,807 capacity)
- · Headliners: TE Brant Kuithe, WR Britain Covey, DL Mika Tafua, DB Bronson Boyd, LB Devin Lloyd
- Warmup acts: DB Clark Phillips III, DE Van Fillinger, DE Xavier Carlton, S Nate Richie, TE Connor O'Toole
- Punchlines: With Oregon State serving as patsy, err, the Utes' sole Pac-12 North foe, things are looking up for Utah. Closing out the campaign with Oregon State and at Colorado is a plus.
- Hecklers: Lucky for Utah, the lone beast in the offing is USC, and the Trojans come to SLC in Week 3. · Gag reel: After climbing to No.
- 5 in the country and 11-1 on the season, the Utes crashed in back-to-back losses to Oregon (in the Pac-12 title game) and Texas (in the Alamo Bowl). It'll be a tall task to reach the same heights, but Whittingham has the chops to get the Utes past last year's disappointment.

WASHINGTON HUSKIES

- 2019 record: 8-5, 4-5 in Pac-12 play
- Head booker: Jimmy Lake (0-0 in first season at Washington, 0-0 in zero seasons overall)
- Stage time: Husky Stadium (70,083 capacity)
- Headliners: RB Richard Newton, OL Jaxson Kirkland, OL Luke Watternberg, TE Cade Otton, DB Elijah Molden, DB Cam Williams
- Warmup acts: DE Sav'ell Smalls, WR Jalen McMillan, OL Myles Murao, QB Ethan Garbers, OL Roger Rosengarten
- Punchlines: Weeks 2-5 could prove fruitful for the Huskies, who host Oregon State, Arizona and Stanford — while back to the Pac-12 elite? That's the task.

WASHINGTON STATE COUGARS

- 2019 record: 6-7, 3-6 in Pac-12 play
- Head booker: Nick Rolovich (0-0 in first season at Washington State, 28-27 in four seasons overall)
- Stage time: Martin Stadium (32,952 capacity)
- Headliners: RB Max Borghi, WR Tay Martin, WR Renard Bell, OL Liam Ryan, OL Abraham Lucas, LB Justus Rogers, DB Skyler Thomas, DB Derrick Langford
- Warmup acts: OB Javden de Laura, DB Alphonse Oywak, WR Joev Hobert, OL James McNorton
- Punchlines: Rolovich could have a tough sledding as there aren't many easy matchups on the slate. A Week 1 showing with Oregon State at least gives the Cougs a chance to start the season on a winning note.
- Hecklers: Washington State is one of just a couple of Pac-12 teams to contend with multiple ranked teams. The Cougars will host Oregon and head to USC, luckily with two games in between.
- Gag reel: Mike Leach is gone, and he took his giant sword and caustic personality with him to Mississippi State. Can Rolovich provide a breath of fresh air for Wazzu? He comes after a four-year stint in Hawaii.

Giving Thanks and Giving Back

THANKFUL FOR OUR COMMUNITY

We believe in building strong communities. Stop by our Welcome Center November 12 from 9am-5pm and bring non-perishable food items to benefit Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona. We will have goodies and a chance to win a turkey or honey-baked ham.

VISIT OUR WELCOME CENTER:

12130 N. DOVE MOUNTAIN BLVD., SUITE 144, MARANA, AZ 85658

La Sonora is a luxury senior living lifestyle community located in the highly desirable Dove Mountain neighborhood in Marana, AZ. Inside La Sonora, you'll find a rich lifestyle of top-tier amenities and activities, chef-crafted culinary choices and enriching artistic pursuits.

5250 W. Dove Centre Road • Marana, AZ 85658

520-351-0828 DISCOVERLASONORA.COM

> Due to COVID-19, we are operating within the CDC guidelines.

OPENING SOON

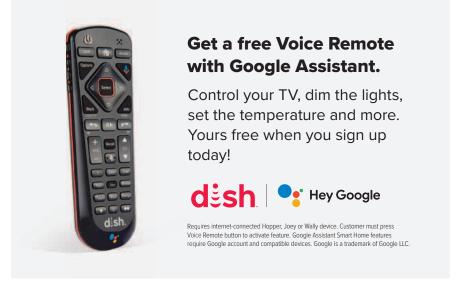

Get Better TV and Amazing Value with Channel Choice.

Sign up today for a free Voice Remote, Smart HD DVR included and more!

Get the TV you love at a price you'll love.

All offers required credit qualification, 2-year commitment with early termination fee and eAutoPay. Prices include Hopper Duo for qualifying customers, Hopper, Hopper w/Sling or Hopper 3 $5/mo. more. Upfront fees may apply based on credit qualification Connect up to five devices at no additional cost with the DISH Anywhere® app.

Stream 100% of your live and recorded TV on up to five devices with the DISH Anywhere® app. Plus, watch from any internet-connected phone, tablet or laptop.

Watching live and recorded TV anywhere requires an internet-connected Hopper w/Sling or Hopper 3 and compatible mobile device. On Hopper Duo, there is no live TV streaming for DISH Anywhere.

Plus, add lightning-fast internet for even more entertainment.

$39⁹⁹

Unlimited Data

Speeds from 25 Mbps - 1 Gbps

Available Everywhere

Channel Choice

TV service not required for internet. Call for details.

Contact Channel Choice Today!

Call Channel Choice today for an amazing, whole-home entertainment solution.

520-314-52321550 W. Wetmore Rd • Tucson AZ 85705

www.channelchoice.com

