

Fort footprint

Fort Lowell was built in the 1870s on mostly vacant land about seven miles from what was then the small town of Tucson. In the 150 years since, the community has grown to envelope the site of the territorial supply fort.

Historic Fort Lowell buildings

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|--|---------------------------|
| 1- Commanding Officer's quarters | 8- Hospital kitchens | 15- Post trader's store |
| 2- Officers' quarters | 9- Company kitchens | 16- Quartermaster corral |
| 3- Officers' kitchens | 10- Quartermaster and Commissary storehouses | 17- Cavalry corral |
| 4- Infantry Company's quarters | 11- Adjutant's office | 18- Telegraph office |
| 5- Cavalry Band quarters | 12- Bake house | 19- Laundresses' quarters |
| 6- Cavalry Company's quarters | 13- Guardhouse | 20- Privies |
| 7- Hospital | 14- Quartermaster and Commissary offices | 21- Blacksmith shop |

