

WILL OF WILLIAM F. DOHME

Only One Specific Bequest, But Provides For Family.

The only specific bequest in the will of the late William F. Dohme, filed for probate in the Orphans' Court yesterday, is of 200 shares of the preferred stock of the Sandee Company of Delaware, of the par value of $100 each, which is left to his son, Justus Dohme, in trust. During her life, or while unmarried, Mrs. Nora Dohme, widow of Mr. Dohme, is to receive the net income from the stock.

Upon the death of Mrs. Dohme the testator's grandchildren, Ralph Justus Dohme and Helen Louise Dohme, are each to receive the income from 50 shares of the stock until they are of age, when they are to get the principal. Donna Blatter, sister-in-law of the testator, is to receive the income from 30 shares for life, with the remainder to Justus Dohme.

Of the remaining 70 shares of the stock 50 are given to the testator's son, Justus Dohme, and 10 each to his sisters-in-law, Mrs. George Washington Allen and Mrs. Robert B. Fisher. The trustee is empowered to exchange all or part of the stock for an equal amount of the stock of the Sharp & Dohme Company.

The residue of the estate goes to the testator's son, Justus Dohme, who is named as executor without bond.

The will is dated April 11, 1911. Mr. Dohme died March 18. He was a Cole's Cavalry veteran and a brother of Louis Dohme, one of the founders of Sharp & Dohme.
