

Tucson's Parks Are Tucson's Jewels--Save Them!

The Arizona Daily Star

TUCSON, ARIZONA, SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1917

Today's Theatrical Offerings

VOL. LXXVII. NO. 96

Weather Forecast for Today

On Tule and at Mesquitas, in part only by East of Tucson, by post office

ALLIES' LEADERS REACH U.S. TO HELP AMERICA IN WAR TO CRUSH PRUSSIAN MENACE

Germany Is On Brink Of Revolution

Berlin Munitions Workers in Riots; Success of Their Demands Means Fall of Militarism

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 21.—(Special) news from the home of Germany today. Volled through the situation, in the midst of a civil commotion and when only projected from having the city had after a sharp clash with the military. This story comes from the front with sufficient detail to make its claims to authority impressive.

The latest information received in that ten thousand rioting munitions workers have remained in today's city in the great Prussian factory town of Magdeburg, and were only projected from having the city had after a sharp clash with the military. This story comes from the front with sufficient detail to make its claims to authority impressive.

DEMANDS REVOLUTIONARY The latest news from the home of Germany today. Volled through the situation, in the midst of a civil commotion and when only projected from having the city had after a sharp clash with the military. This story comes from the front with sufficient detail to make its claims to authority impressive.

Germany Is On Brink Of Revolution

Great Britain's High Commissioners to the International War Council Led by Arthur J. Balfour, Dean of World's Statesmen. In Cut Are Shown: Left to Right Above: Arthur J. Balfour, Admiral De Chair, and M. Viviani. Below: General Foch, General Joffre, and Octave Homburg. "To Bring Peace to World, Our Mission."—Balfour.

Cattlemen To Fore In Nation's Need

Arizona Stockraisers in Conference in Tucson Adopt Plans, Every One Effective

Sixty cattlemen, representing all the big range interests of the southern part of Arizona, assembled yesterday in annual convention of the Southwestern Stock Growers' association, passed the following resolutions calling for the raising of livestock, production in a maximum in furtherance of the national mobilization program.

EVERY PLAN EFFECTIVE Proposing the Indian commissioner to appoint four more commissioners to lead the cattlemen to remove their cattle from the present Indian reservation.

INEFFECTIVE ARTILLERY OPENS WAY

Never-Ceasing Hail of Death Hurlled into German Defences, Tearing Wide Gaps for Dash by Allies

Counter Attacks Put Down by Fresh Guns by Anglo-French; Morale of Invaders Gone

(By Associated Press) While the artillery of the French and British armies continues to hurl thousands of projectiles into the German lines from Lens to east of Abbeville, in Champagne, the attack forces have captured counter attacks and made progress at some points.

President's Struggle to Organize Army on Basis to Insure Safety of United States Opens in Congress

SENATE CLEARS WAY FOR VOTE THIS WEEK

Advocates of Volunteer System, the Only Stumbling Block, in Minority in Both Houses, However

Germany Is On Brink Of Revolution

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 21.—President Wilson's fight to organize a war time army under the aegis of the new draft law will begin in earnest Monday in both houses of congress.

Argentine Proud of Stop Against Kaiser

BUNOS AIRES, April 21.—A demonstration organized by the Argentine government in honor of the president of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, was held today. Various public men declared to the government that they were proud of the Argentine stand against the Kaiser.

Britain Takes Over All Flour Mills

LONDON, April 21.—Baron Devenport, food controller, today issued an order for the taking over of all flour mills in the United Kingdom. The order was issued in the name of the government and is intended to insure the supply of flour to the army and navy.

Turkey Ends Relations With U. S. Is News Hurried From Berlin

LONDON, April 21.—The Turkish government on Friday evening officially announced that it had severed diplomatic relations with the United States.

Wall Street Hesitant

NEW YORK, April 21.—Investment financing and taxation in relation to the war were seen in the market and personal features of a dull and treacherous day. Advances in the first half of the period were held off, but not held in the subsequent selling and fearful pressure of the last few days.

Pani Denies Mexico Will Seize Oil Wells

MEXICO CITY, April 21.—Alberto Pani, secretary of commerce and industry, today declared the Mexican government had any intention of taking over oil wells belonging to the Cowley interests or the oil properties of any other foreigners.

British Crowds Jeer German Raiders' Crews

LONDON, April 21.—A dispatch to Lloyd's Weekly News from Dover says there was some looting by crews when the German raider, the U-107, was destroyed. The bodies of about 100 German seamen have been found up to the channel, the latest adds.

Butte and Superior Shows $1,000,000 Gain

NEW YORK, April 21.—Butte and Superior Mining company, the largest producer of zinc in this country, showed a net income of $1,000,000 over the preceding year in its annual report, made available today.

20000-Flags-20000

FREE FREE FREE FREE

Bring This Coupon to The Star and get a package of FLAG STICKERS to put on your correspondence. Show your colors. These flags are for the grown-ups only.