Club Turbulence stirs things up

Constancia Lane sits in her nearly complete "gentlemen's club," hoping to get a liquor license in the face of opposition. Or she could open a male social club.

It's up to the state liquor board: topless bar or hard-core club?

By Joe Burchell

Club Turbulence is on final approach for a landing at Tucson International Airport.

Whether Tucson's newest "gentlemen's club" becomes a standard topless bar or something decidedly more hard-core, is in the hands of the state liquor board.

Last month, at the request of airport businesses and nearby neighborhoods, the City Council voted unanimously to oppose the club's application for a state liquor license.

That license would require the club to follow state and city liquor laws, closing by 1 a.m., and prohibiting anyone under 21 from entering.

Dancers would have to wear "pasties" and some kind of covering over their genitalia.

Without a license, state law allows full nudity—although the dancers would have to don bikinis or some other minimal apparel between 1 a.m. and 6 a.m. Anyone over 18 would be welcome and the club could stay open around the clock.

Dancers, like patrons, could be as young as 18 years old without a license. With a liquor license, the dancers would have to be at least 19 years old.

The City Council's vote is advisory. The club's request now goes to the Arizona Liquor Board for a final decision. The state board upholds the city position more often than not, but not always.

If forced to choose, opponents of the bar's opening said this week, they would favor the more hard-core sex club over granting Club Turbulence a liquor license.

Gene Bopola, assistant superintendent of the Sunnyside Unified School District, said the club's opening would be a bad idea for the community.
