

TUCSON, ARIZONA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 2, 1924. EIGHT PAGES. On Trains and at News Stands, 5c a Copy.

FLAMES TO THE SKY AS GROSH SLAYED; LED SOBING FROM COURT POSTOFFICE TORN DOWN

Girl Points to Ward as Grosh Slayer; Led Sobbing From Court Postoffice Torn Down

Court Bars Testimony Of Occurrences After Shooting of Student

Defense Asks Questions Hinting at Meeting of Former Miss McNeely and Ward in Postoffice on Night of Killing, But Girl Is Emphatic in Her Denials.

By J. F. WEADECO.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 1.—The testimony of a girl who testified in court today that she saw a young man, identified as a student, point to a young woman, identified as a former Miss McNeely, as the slayer of a student, was barred by the court today.

The girl, who testified in court today, said she saw the young man point to the young woman as the slayer of a student, who was killed in a shooting in a postoffice in Phoenix, Ariz., on the night of March 31.

The girl, who testified in court today, said she saw the young man point to the young woman as the slayer of a student, who was killed in a shooting in a postoffice in Phoenix, Ariz., on the night of March 31.

ONE DEAD, 15 HURT IN COLLISION ON L

Trains Meet in Blinding Snow and Brakes Fail to Work

New York, April 1.—Fermano John Quinn was killed and 15 persons were injured when a passenger train crashed into another at a Long Island beach station during a blinding snowstorm today.

The accident occurred on a stretch of suburban railroad line owned by the Long Island Railroad company and the latter was being operated by the New York Central company.

The Great train, which was carrying 150 passengers, was moving at a speed of 40 miles an hour when it struck the passenger train, which was moving at a speed of 20 miles an hour.

Let Uncle Sam Pay

Bryan Wants Government to Finance Political Drive of Candidates at a Rate of 10 Cents Per Vote

Washington, April 1.—A plan to let the government pay the campaign expenses of candidates for office at a rate of 10 cents per vote was brought forward here today by William Jennings Bryan.

Mr. Bryan said that the government should finance the political drive of candidates for office at a rate of 10 cents per vote.

DRUGGIST IS HELD FOR 12 DEATHS FROM POISON BOOZE

Two Clerks Say They Were Told to Leave Labels off Toleto Store Bottles

Half Dozen Others in Hospital as Result of Party in Hotel Sunday Night

Phoenix, Ariz., April 1.—Orestes T. Toleto, who was held for 12 deaths from poison booze, was held for 12 deaths from poison booze.

Two clerks say they were told to leave labels off Toleto store bottles.

Denials Are Dominant in Senate Quiz of Daugherty

Hannon's Friend Admits Hugs Expediting of 1920 Convention in 1920

101 RANCH UNDER FIRE; Failure to Recover Indian Lands After Conviction. Charged to Ex-Officio.

Washington, April 1.—Statements of a committee today in a Senate hearing on the Daugherty case were dominated by denials.

101 RANCH UNDER FIRE: Failure to Recover Indian Lands After Conviction. Charged to Ex-Officio.

BANDIT, BANKER DEAD IN BATTLE IN CITY STREET

Tugs Surged Getting Hung, But Lost One of Number; Some Lost Recovered

Phoenix, Ariz., April 1.—A bandit and a banker were killed in a battle in a city street today.

The bandit, who was known as 'Red', was killed in a battle with the banker, who was known as 'Black'.

LA FOLLETTE IS EASY VICTOR IN WISCONSIN VOTE

Al Smith Running Slightly Ahead of McAdoo in Party

Michigan, April 1.—The vote in Michigan today was a decisive one for La Follette.

Al Smith is running slightly ahead of McAdoo in the party.

In Desperate Effort To Save Cochise City

Explosion in Movie Theater Starts Blaze; Crowd Passes Out of Hall Without Caution, but Volunteer Department Unable to Check Sweep Through Business Center.

At 11 o'clock the fire in Tucson was reported under control. The wind that for two hours threatened to destroy the whole of the business district, had returned to a light breeze, scattering whirlwinds of ashes and sparks from the ruins of four of Benson's largest business buildings, the Liberty movie theater, American Cafe, Cochise County State Bank and the postoffice.

WOMAN DENIES BEING PARTY TO BURLY

San Luis Obispo, Calif., April 1.—A woman who was accused of being a party to a burglary today denied the charge.

STOLEN JEWELS FOUND AND NEGRO IS JAILLED

San Luis Obispo, Calif., April 1.—A woman who was accused of being a party to a burglary today denied the charge.

HOTEL DESTROYED, 2 WOMEN HURT IN JUMP

Grand Haven, Mich., April 1.—Two women were hurt in a jump from a hotel today.

THREE DEAD BLAZE POLICE SEIZ FIREBUG

Hanson, Wyo., April 1.—Three people were killed in a fire today.

Mrs. Coolidge to Award Prizes in Girls' Essay Contest on "Why Men I Know Should Attend Citizen Camp"

Washington, April 1.—Coolidge today said she would award prizes to the winners of a girls' essay contest on "Why Men I Know Should Attend Citizen Camp."

Ludendorff Brands His Acquittal On Treason Charge "Ignominious" Affront, But Verdict Is Popular

March, April 1.—General Erich Ludendorff today branded his acquittal on a charge of treason as an "ignominious" affront, but the verdict was popular.

THE DAY IN WASHINGTON

March, April 1.—General Erich Ludendorff today branded his acquittal on a charge of treason as an "ignominious" affront, but the verdict was popular.

DRUGGIST IS HELD FOR 12 DEATHS FROM POISON BOOZE

Phoenix, Ariz., April 1.—Orestes T. Toleto, who was held for 12 deaths from poison booze, was held for 12 deaths from poison booze.