

MONDAY

Buying a scope

There is much to consider

Star Tech, 8D

Going faster

56K modems are promising

Star Tech, 16D

Killer of dogs

Poison suspected in deaths of pets

Metro/Region, 1B

Lady Vols triumph

Fifth championship is second straight

Sports, 8C

The Arizona Daily Star

Serving Tucson and Southern Arizona

Vol. 156 No. 9+

50¢ U.S./$1.00 in Mexico 48 Pages

'Feline Final' has coaches, fans purring

By Doug Kroutz

INDIANAPOLIS - How splendid it is, while strolling the streets of this bastion of basketball obsession...

IA's Miles Simon describes what it's like to play with Mike Bibby because the Sun Belt Wildcats are fighting for 'respect'...

Victorious or not, Olson has proved his staying power

INDIANAPOLIS - At the Final Four...

the last chance, Late Olson will have to get his ultimate pedigree...

Tonight's game 7:12 p.m. on KOLD-TV, Channel 13 (broadcast on Channel 7 on TCI and Jones interable systems)...

Clinton backs candidates' free TV ads

By Robert A. Rankin

WASHINGTON - One road that could lead American government out of the swamp of campaign-finance corruption may begin with a single step this week...

Orphaned by AIDS virus at 4

Doris Alexander, 4, is in the custody of Child Protective Services after losing both her parents to AIDS

Girl, living amid strangers, waits for dad

By Inger Sandell Only 4, Doris is too young to know about the AIDS virus that killed her parents...

Drugs from dead U.S. AIDS patients help in Mexico

By Dana Calvo Beyond the immediate fear of losing patients because they have no medicine, health workers on both sides of the border worry about the worst-case possibility...

lance at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, said AIDS adapts swiftly to drugs, especially if they are intermittently administered.

Spring sprinkles. A mostly cloudy morning brings a 20 percent chance of light showers or sprinkles...

WEATHER INDEX Accret 4.88 Homeop...TB Classified 1.99 Star Tech 1.160 Games .68 News to Watch .88 Comics .14 Sports 1.11C Dear Abby .58 TV today .18