

I-11 corridor 'record of decision'

The first phase of the planning process of the 280-mile Interstate 11 project is complete, but the route through Pima County has yet to be decided. The west option would go through Avra Valley, while the east option would co-locate I-11 with I-10.

