

TUCSONANS FITTINGLY OBSERVE HOLIDAY

Thanksgiving Spirit Here on
Schedule; Travelers
Only Dismal Ones

Thanksgiving day was quietly observed in Tucson yesterday, but with real pleasure to many people who either entertained friends or were entertained at dinner.

There was a large attendance at the Presbyterian church, where a union service was held in the morning. Rev. W. J. Dixon delivered a most interesting address in honor of the day.

At both the city and county jails the prisoners were not forgotten, all being served with a special Thanksgiving dinner.

The only dismal spots were in the corridors of the hotels, where a few poor traveling men could be found, describing the meals that their wives or mothers had prepared in Thanksgivings gone by and just wishing for home.
