

Today's Theatrical Offerings
OPERA HOUSE—The Yellow Tavern.
BROADWAY—The Yellow Tavern.
PIMA—The Island of Rejuvenation.

The Arizona Daily Star

Weather Forecast for Today
New Mexico—Partly fair, cooler.
Arizona—Tuesday, Wednesday, fair.
T U C S O N A R I Z O N A

VOL. LXXVII, NO. 55

TUCSON, ARIZONA, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 6, 1917.

City Edition

Wilson Determined to Either Arm or Convoy U. S. Merchantmen; With Nation on War's Brink, President Makes Last Peace Prayer; Senate Is Beginning to Feel Full Weight of Public Opinion

U. S. DEMANDS MORE RIGHTS BUT IS FACED BY WAR

President in Inaugural Address Pictures Wrongs America Has Patiently Borne; Outbursts of Loyalty Show Nation Is Back of Him

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 5.—Woodrow Wilson with the major part of the world in mind and America's position in the world concerned his second inauguration as president of the United States with its last message of hope for peace.

German Plot to Blow Up Munition Plants Is Nipped

Bombs Found in Prisoner's Room Led to First Belief Plot Was to Kill the President

(By Associated Press) HOBOKEN, N. J., March 5.—With the arrest here today of Fritz Kohn, a German, the authorities expressed the belief that they had frustrated a well-developed plan to assassinate the president by blowing up munition plants in this country, according to reports that had reached them in the attack on the president's life was contemplated. The police said they found in Kohn's room two bombs, which, according to reports that had reached them, were to be sent to President Wilson.

Zimmerman, Carranza, Zubaran, Cabrera, and Bernstorff in Plot to Dismember United States

Left to right, above: Carranza and Zimmermann. Center: Bernstorff. Below: Cabrera and Zubaran.

These are the men most prominently mentioned in connection with the German-Mexican plot to dismember the United States.

Searchlight of Nation Is Turned On Congressmen

Whether to Forego Filibusters Hereafter or Listen to People Is Their Problem

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 5.—With President Wilson's demand for a change in Senate rules to make peace possible, the nation's searchlight is turned on Congressmen. The Senate will vote tomorrow on a program for the neutral zone. The Senate will vote tomorrow on a program for the neutral zone. The Senate will vote tomorrow on a program for the neutral zone.

WILSON WILL PROVIDE FULL PROTECTION TO AMERICANS

Denied Authority to Arm Ships by Handful of Pacifists, the President Learns That He Has Constitutional Power to Send Convoys With Vessels

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 5.—Further action by President Wilson in the German situation was postponed today pending a decision by his legal advisers whether he has power to send American merchantmen in spite of the failure of Congress to pass a resolution conferring such authority.

HOUSE ROLLS UP SLEEVES, THEN D.K.'S 523 BILLS

Fourteen Measures Sent to the Governor, and a Score More Are Brought Up; Speed Comes Too Late, However

(By Associated Press) PHOENIX, Ariz., March 5.—Making no mistake in the house passed twenty-three bills today which were sent to the governor for his signature.

Cuban Rebels Ask Truce For Election

NEW YORK, March 5.—Immediate cessation of hostilities by the Cuban rebels to permit a free election, to be followed by a truce for election purposes, was demanded today by the commander of the American naval expedition to Cuba.

German Paper Abuses Wilson And Entire U.S.

(By Associated Press) THE HAGUE, N. L., March 5.—The Hague Reviewer, a daily paper which has been published since the outbreak of the war, today published an editorial which was a scathing attack on President Wilson and the United States.

TROOP LINES GUARD WILSON IN PARADE

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 5.—The military procession which marked President Wilson's second inauguration today marched with a guard of troops.

Supreme Court Will Rule on Adamson 8-Hour Law Today

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, March 5.—The case of Adamson vs. United States, which will be argued today before the Supreme Court, is expected to result in a decision on the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law.

Three States Play Senators Who Killed Armed Neutrality Bill

(By Associated Press) PHOENIX, Ariz., March 5.—The Senate today passed a resolution which would allow the United States to arm its merchant ships.

GUM-CHEWING TOO MUCH FOR JUDGE; HALTS COURT UNTIL FILLS STOP IT

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, March 5.—Gum chewing on the part of 200 striking girl garment workers stopped court proceedings here today.

NEW CITIZENS CHEER IN INAUGURAL MARCH

(By Associated Press) PHOENIX, Ariz., March 5.—The new citizens of the United States who are being naturalized here today, cheered enthusiastically at the inauguration of President Wilson.

WASHINGTON PLEDGES SUPPORT TO NATION

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 5.—The House of Representatives today pledged its support to the United States in the current situation.

MISSOURI HAS LOCAL OPTION LAXITY

(By Associated Press) JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 5.—The House of Representatives today passed a bill which would give Missouri more latitude in local option matters.

SCHOONER BURNS AT SEA

(By Associated Press) PHOENIX, Ariz., March 5.—A schooner was burned today at sea near Phoenix, Arizona.

PORTUGAL EX-PRESIDENT DEAD

(By Associated Press) LISBON, Portugal, March 5.—Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, former prime minister of Portugal, died today.

(Continued on Page Two)