

Top coaches from the winter season

Basketball

Luke Buttry
Shenandoah

Buttry guided the Mustangs to a 13-win season, the program's best in 10 years. Shenandoah finished .500 in the Hawkeye 10 Conference and won a district tournament game, all in Buttry's first year leading the program.

Courtesy photo

Bowling

Darin Pease
Shenandoah

Pease led the Shenandoah boys and girls bowling programs to identical 7-2 dual records and qualified two individuals for the state tournament, while having a different athlete win the Hawkeye 10 Conference individual title.

Wrestling

Jason Gordon
Clarinda

Gordon guided the Cardinals to a 14-2 dual record and showed throughout the season that the Cardinals were one of southwest Iowa's top teams. The Cardinals had three state qualifiers and two state medalists, all of which return next season.

MAKE YOUR MOVE

Let our orthopedic team help get you back in the game.

Orthopedics at Shenandoah Medical Center

