Athletes of the Week

For events through October 21-27

Cross Country

Photo by Jamie Burdorf

Will Stevenson
Shenandoah, Senior

Stevenson picked the perfect meet to run a lifetime best time. His time of 18:57 Thursday, Oct. 22, in Treynor gave him a 33rd-place finish. He helped lead the Mustangs to a runner-up team finish at the state qualifying meet, advancing to the state meet for the first time in 12 years.

Football

Photo by Jamie Burdorf

Lukus Major
Shenandoah, Senior

Major recorded 10 tackles in leading the Mustangs to a playoff win Friday, Oct. 23, at Interstate 35. Seven of Major's 10 tackles were solo, and he added 1.5 tackles for loss as the Mustangs won a playoff game for the first time since 1987. Through the playoff opener, Major's 57 tackles were most on the team.

Volleyball

Rylee Maher
Clarinda, Sophomore

Maher recorded seven kills and eight digs Thursday, Oct. 22, in the Cardinals' season-ending regional loss at Cherokee. Maher put up the same numbers two days earlier in a regional win over Greene County. Maher was third on the team in digs with 199 and fourth in kills with 128 this season.