"Why the Love of Money Is the Root of Racism and How the Church Can Create a New Way Forward"

Malcolm Foley (PhD, Baylor University) is a pastor, historian, and speaker who serves as special adviser to the president for campus engagement at Baylor University. He has written for Christianity Today, The Anxious Bench, and Mere Orthodoxy. Foley copastors Mosaic Waco, a multicultural church in Waco, Texas, where he lives with his wife, Desiree. He is the author of The Anti-Greed Gospel.

"A year-long ethnographic study funded by the Calvin Institute explored the phenomenon of belonging in a church which has worshipped under a bridge for three decades, rooted in relationships."
