

Valentine's Day In-Memoriam

Rev. William Lott, Jr.
Sept. 27, 1929 – Feb. 14, 2012

We cried when you passed away. We still cry today. Although I (we) loved you dearly, we couldn't make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke my (our) heart to prove to us he only takes the best.

It's been four years today, since the Lord called you home from the labor to reward. We love you and miss you very much.

Your wife, Eliza Lott and children; grand and great-grand children; and Sunset M.B.C

Even though two years have gone by, we still have moments that we cry. But after the tears have dried, a colorful rainbow will appear, to remind us that you are still near;
