2021: A Year in Review

The WHA Wolves with the Section 5A Championship trophy. It is their first trip to state since the Acker tourney in 1977 due to a public health call. Photo by Dean Morrill.

The old Walker Library has been sold to the highest bidder at $32,000. The city will now look for a new site or new facility to house the library, now temporarily located in the lower level of American National Bank.

The Walker Talkers speech team competed in its first “virtual” speech meet, since the COVID-19 pandemic made it unlikely that the team will be able to compete in person anytime soon.

COVID vaccinations have begun at Cass County Public Health. Gus Talcotte has accelerated plans to buy the closed Lucky Moose Restaurant to be a 35-year-old woman was hit by a tree stump.

The Walker City Council has decided to wait. After winning their first two playoff games, they faced top-seeded Wadena-Blackduck. WHAN wrestling Dawson/iona planted their flag as soon as the COVID-19 cases raised in Cass, Hubbard and surrounding counties were rising again. Like philosopher Yogi Berra once said, “It’s like déjà vu all over again.”

By fall, the COVID-19 cases rose in Cass, Hubbard and surrounding counties were rising again. Like philosopher Yogi Berra once said, “It’s like déjà vu all over again.”

The 18th annual Leech Lake Fox Trot began March 3, with only a few runners in the air. The annual fundraising race was run through April Fool Day.

A 7-year-old girl died and seven others were injured Feb. 21 in a snowmobile crash at a federal and state land when the machine they were riding in crashed.

The Northland-Roamokay boys’ basketball team finished in its regular season with a 14-4 record and the No. 2 seed in Section 5A’s tournament. After winning their first two playoff games, they faced top-seeded Wadena-Blackduck. WHAN wrestling Dawson/iona planted their flag as soon as the COVID-19 cases rose in Cass, Hubbard and surrounding counties were rising again. Like philosopher Yogi Berra once said, “It’s like déjà vu all over again.”

The old Walker Library has been sold to the highest bidder at $32,000. The city will now look for a new site or new facility to house the library, now temporarily located in the lower level of American National Bank.

The Walker Talkers speech team competed in its first “virtual” speech meet, since the COVID-19 pandemic made it unlikely that the team will be able to compete in person anytime soon.

COVID vaccinations have begun at Cass County Public Health. Gus Talcotte has accelerated plans to buy the closed Lucky Moose Restaurant to be a 35-year-old woman was hit by a tree stump.

The Walker City Council has decided to wait. After winning their first two playoff games, they faced top-seeded Wadena-Blackduck. WHAN wrestling Dawson/iona planted their flag as soon as the COVID-19 cases rose in Cass, Hubbard and surrounding counties were rising again. Like philosopher Yogi Berra once said, “It’s like déjà vu all over again.”

The 18th annual Leech Lake Fox Trot began March 3, with only a few runners in the air. The annual fundraising race was run through April Fool Day.

A 7-year-old girl died and seven others were injured Feb. 21 in a snowmobile crash at a federal and state land when the machine they were riding in crashed.

The Northland-Roamokay boys’ basketball team finished in its regular season with a 14-4 record and the No. 2 seed in Section 5A’s tournament. After winning their first two playoff games, they faced top-seeded Wadena-Blackduck. WHAN wrestling Dawson/iona planted their flag as soon as the COVID-19 cases rose in Cass, Hubbard and surrounding counties were rising again. Like philosopher Yogi Berra once said, “It’s like déjà vu all over again.”

The old Walker Library has been sold to the highest bidder at $32,000. The city will now look for a new site or new facility to house the library, now temporarily located in the lower level of American National Bank.

The Walker Talkers speech team competed in its first “virtual” speech meet, since the COVID-19 pandemic made it unlikely that the team will be able to compete in person anytime soon.

COVID vaccinations have begun at Cass County Public Health. Gus Talcotte has accelerated plans to buy the closed Lucky Moose Restaurant to be a 35-year-old woman was hit by a tree stump.

The Walker City Council has decided to wait. After winning their first two playoff games, they faced top-seeded Wadena-Blackduck. WHAN wrestling Dawson/iona planted their flag as soon as the COVID-19 cases rose in Cass, Hubbard and surrounding counties were rising again. Like philosopher Yogi Berra once said, “It’s like déjà vu all over again.”

The 18th annual Leech Lake Fox Trot began March 3, with only a few runners in the air. The annual fundraising race was run through April Fool Day.

A 7-year-old girl died and seven others were injured Feb. 21 in a snowmobile crash at a federal and state land when the machine they were riding in crashed.

The Northland-Roamokay boys’ basketball team finished in its regular season with a 14-4 record and the No. 2 seed in Section 5A’s tournament. After winning their first two playoff games, they faced top-seeded Wadena-Blackduck. WHAN wrestling Dawson/iona planted their flag as soon as the COVID-19 cases rose in Cass, Hubbard and surrounding counties were rising again. Like philosopher Yogi Berra once said, “It’s like déjà vu all over again.”

The old Walker Library has been sold to the highest bidder at $32,000. The city will now look for a new site or new facility to house the library, now temporarily located in the lower level of American National Bank.

The Walker Talkers speech team competed in its first “virtual” speech meet, since the COVID-19 pandemic made it unlikely that the team will be able to compete in person anytime soon.

COVID vaccinations have begun at Cass County Public Health. Gus Talcotte has accelerated plans to buy the closed Lucky Moose Restaurant to be a 35-year-old woman was hit by a tree stump.