In and Out of Army and Jail

“Pardoned” Drunk Drivers Rejected Again by Former, Turned Out of Latter; What Now?

Curtis Storey of Waterford, 27, who is in the army, and ray M. Hornak of Custer, 25, former police officer here, were turned out of a Minot, N. D., drinking establishment by a military police officer last night.

Storey and Hornak, both of whom are married, were formerly officers of the Waterford police department, and had been active in the sale of alcohol to the public.

Storey, who is married to a woman in Waterford, and Hornak, who is married to a woman in Minot, were both arrested in Minot last week on charges of selling alcohol to the public.

The two men were tried in Minot, and found guilty of the charge of selling alcohol. They were sentenced to 60 days in the county jail.

The jail term was commuted to a fine of $100, which was paid by the two men.

THE SULLIVANS' MEMORIAL FUND

Deere, I. C. Men Boost Memorial

Employees of the electrical department of the Deere & Company factory here will hold a fund drive to raise money for the Samuel J. Deere Memorial fund.

The drive, which will be held at the factory, will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on both Tuesday and Thursday.

The drive will be conducted by a group of 10 men, who will collect donations from the employees.

The money raised will be used to purchase a monument to be erected in honor of Samuel J. Deere, who was a founder of the company.

The drive will be held on Tuesday and Thursday, and will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on both days.
