Prophetic Note in Letter From Hendrik Van Loon to John Miller

Mr. Miller,

I wish to convey to you a few words of advice, which I believe will be of great value to you in your present situation.

Firstly, I urge you to maintain a strong and unwavering faith in God. He is the foundation of all true strength and stability. In moments of doubt and uncertainty, remember that He is always with you, watching over your every action.

Secondly, I advise you to cultivate a spirit of humility and modesty. Humility is a virtue that is highly prized in all societies, and it will surely bring you respect and admiration.

Finally, I encourage you to surround yourself with good and virtuous friends. Good friends will always help you to grow and improve, while bad friends will only lead you down the wrong path.

I pray that these words will be a blessing to you, and that you will find them helpful in your daily life. May God bless you and guide you always.

Yours truly,

Hendrik Van Loon
