

ST. PETER EDUCATIONAL ANNEX

Denver Church Educational Annex Dedication Sunday

DENVER—Sunday St. Peter Lutheran church of Denver will dedicate a new $70,000 educational annex. At a service led by Dr. H. W. Siefkes, president of the Iowa District of the American Lutheran church, the congregation will assemble at 2 p. m. for the dedicatory rites.

The annex was designed by Thorsson & Brom, architects, Waterloo. It contains a large overflow room for the church parlors downstairs, as well as one for the church auditorium.

THERE ARE 11 classrooms, a new church office, a ladies lounge, and a choir room in the new building.

The building committee appointed by the church council consisted of the pastor, Rev. C. F. Hafemann, Vernon Moeller, chairman of the congregation, Merle Phipps, Emil DeVries and Robert Hennings.

The first Lutheran service in Denver was conducted Nov. 17, 1901. To observe the 60th anniversary of the congregation special services will be held on the morning of Nov. 26. At the early service, 8:30

THE SECOND service at 10:15 a. m. will feature Rev. L. Stumme, superintendent of the Lutheran homes in Muscatine, as the principal speaker. Both of these pastors are sons of the St. Peter Lutheran church.

A confirmation reunion, sponsored by one of the congregation's organizations, will be held in connection with the afternoon service. The confirmation litany, led by the Rev. F. Schoenbohm, who served St. Peter Lutheran church for many decades as the first pastor, will conclude the formal dedication.

An open house and fellowship hour follows at 3:30 p. m.

RUM SWITCH.

If you have rum extract on your pantry shelf, you may use it instead of vanilla as a flavoring for whipped cream or whipped evaporated milk to be served on a chocolate dessert.
