

Middle Cedar Partnership

The Middle Cedar Partnership covers a 135,000-acre area – contained within the 1.5-million-acre Middle Cedar Watershed – that drains into the Cedar River and winds up downstream in Cedar Rapids. The Cedar River enters Iowa north of St. Ansgar and merges with the Iowa River at Columbus Junction.

Sources: City of Cedar Rapids, Iowa Watershed Approach

Gazette map