Second Quarter Sales Tax For County Was $893,502

Black Hawk County ranked fifth in the state in sales taxes paid during the quarter ending June 30, the State Tax Commission reported Tuesday.

Black Hawk County retailers paid $893,502 in sales taxes for the quarter. Payment of the taxes was due by Sept. 30.

The Tax Commission figures showed Iowans spent more money on food than merchandise in the three-month period. The food group paid sales taxes of $4,859,749 for the period compared with $4,075,406 for the general merchandise group.

Public utility and transportation taxes ranked third with a $1,665,492 total.

USE TAXES collected in Black Hawk county for the same quarter totaled $37,884, including $32,603 from Waterloo, $2,353 from Cedar Falls, $2,858 from La Porte City, and $68 from other sources in the county.
