COLLEEN TIERNEY ANNOUNCES BID FOR IOWA HOUSE

Waterloo, Iowa – Longtime real-estate agent, Colleen Tierney, announced today that she is running as a Republican for the Iowa House of Representatives in District 60. Tierney is a lifelong resident of Waterloo working for 18 years in the beauty business before starting a 21-year career in real-estate. She currently works at Re/Max Home Group.

"I've spent nearly 40 years of my life in the service industry and I consider it a privilege to work with and learn from so many customers, clients, family and friends," said Tierney. "Listening to the concerns that impact so many in our community I feel that we can find common sense solutions and bring together a positive environment to enjoy the joys of Iowa living at all ages."

As the mother of two and the grandmother of two more, Tierney believes in the power of education to lift lives and help Iowans reach for their version of the American Dream. She says her campaign will focus on Iowa's children, making sure they're safe and protected, well-educated and able to find great jobs right here at home after they graduate high school or college.

Tierney says she looks forward to visiting with people during the campaign at their front doors, at local service clubs, business groups, and in senior homes and veteran's halls. She wants to listen to their concerns and share her belief that personal freedom and personal responsibility go hand-in-hand.

"I don't believe in handouts. But I do believe in a helping hand up. I don't believe big government budgets solve problems. We've got to keep taxes low so working families aren't squeezed," said Tierney. "I believe that more Iowans thrive when government stays out of the way."

Tierney is a 1981 graduate of Central High in Waterloo where she still resides today with her husband of 33 years, Tim. They have two adult children, Chelsea and Cole. They are also the proud grandparents of two boys, Jackson and Parker.
