Let's go to a party

A PARTY going poodle gets a helping hand from a festive toddler dressed in her holiday best. The white lawn "choir boy" pinafore has a square bertha collar edged with two rows of red rickrack. The shirred yoke is set high, and the skirt is trimmed with an embroidered band in a red and white peasant motif with red rickrack bands above and below it. Button back. Underneath is a red cotton dress with high shirred yoke and elbow length sleeves gathered at the end. The outfit also comes in a blue dress with white pinafore. Sizes 2 to 3x, under seven dollars. (For name of Waterloo store where this fashion is carried, call or write the Women's Department.)

Use leftover gravy quickly to keep home fire burning

By GAYNOR MADDON
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—How long can I keep leftover gravy, broth and meat before using?
A—The Institute of Home Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture, warns not to keep them more than one or two days. They are very perishable. Cool, cover and refrigerate all these items quickly.
Q—How can I keep eggs in good condition after I bring them home from the market?
A—The new pamphlet "Storing Perishable Foods" from the U. S. Department of Agriculture advises to store them promptly in refrigerator where they retain their quality well. But they lose their mild flavor quickly at room temperature. To be sure of best quality and flavor, use eggs within a week.

Q—How can I get the pamphlet "Storing Perishable Foods"?
A—Write to Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. Ask for Home and Garden Bulletin No. 78, U. S. Department of Agriculture, and enclose 10 cents.
