

Pet EXPO

Featured pet: Alexander, male, 1-1/2 year old, shepherd, had some very bad luck in his life, he was found emaciated and nearly dead from malnutrition when he arrived at the shelter. He now loves life and people, wants to spend time with you and would love a home where he can go jogging, play frisbee, long walks or chase a tennis ball. He is good with other dogs his size, he wants to be bossy and is not good with sharing food, treats or toys. He's happy just to feel good. Needs a bit of training.

Featured pet: Sammy, approx. 3-year-old, terrier, American pit bull mix. Very sweet boy, he arrived at the shelter very skinny. He has since gained some weight and will continue to get healthier. He likes to play, tennis balls are his favorite. Walks pretty good on a leash. He would love nothing more than to be a part of a family that will spoil him with lots of love, a nice fluffy, warm bed and treats! He is friendly with people, but I can't go to a home with other dogs or cats. He would need to be your only fur baby and would also do best in a home with older children.

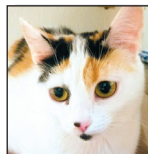

Featured pet
Desoto is a male very handsome pitbull mix at 4 years old. He loves to go for walks, play in the water and give kisses. He has to be the only pet in the home, but no worries, he can fill your heart with love.
