

The White Mountain Independent

in Show Low, Ariz. is Offering:

A three-month, part-time, paid internship. We're a twice weekly newspaper in Arizona's beautiful White Mountains that covers communities in both Apache and Navajo counties.

We're looking for a someone who:

- Is interested in covering a little bit of everything - council and school meetings, local features, events coverage and sports - and isn't afraid to dig into a story.
- Is interested in searching for their own stories, as well as taking assignments from editors.
- Can write cleanly and accurately, knows AP Style, meets deadlines and can help copy edit on occasion.
- Can shoot photos and videos.
- Has a dependable vehicle, clean driving record and isn't afraid to travel for a good story.
- Is interested in learning the ins and outs of working at a small community-centered newspaper.
- You MUST be looking for college credits to apply, as this is a College Credits Eligible Position.

What we can offer you:

- ~ A paid, part-time internship for three months ~
- ~The chance to work with a dedicated team of community-minded journalists and editors who enjoy mentoring others. ~
- ~ The opportunity to get real-world experience. ~

Send us a cover letter explaining why you think you're a fit, along with your resume, writing clips and references we can talk to.

Send to news@wmicentral.com.

WHITE MOUNTAIN
Independent 