WARNING: This is an official court order. If you disobey this order, you may be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this order.

NOTICE: If you disagree with this injunction, you have the right to request a hearing, which will be held within 10 business days after your written request has been filed in the court that issued this injunction. Violations of this injunction should be reported to a law enforcement agency, not the court.

ADDITIONAL WARNINGS TO DEFENDANT: Nothing the plaintiff does can stop, change, or undo this injunction without the court's written approval. You must appear in court to ask a judge to change (modify) or dismiss (quash) this injunction. Even if the plaintiff initiates contact, you could be arrested and prosecuted for violating this order. If you do not want the plaintiff to contact you, you have the right to request a protective order against the plaintiff. But orders are not automatically granted upon request. Legal requirements must be met.

In October 2023, Michael Whiting wanted to meet with me to discuss a case. He drove me to Round Valley because there was another matter I needed to tend to. While there, Michael pulled into the Western Drug parking lot. It was after dark. Michael told me to get out of the car and leave my phone in the car. ~~the~~ I asked him what was going on and he said get out of the car and leave my phone in the car. He said it was a "leave-your-phone-in-the-car conversation." I told him that I felt I was either getting murdered or fired. He told me to get out of the car. He went to a nearby construction fence and he told me about the case, I was fearful and didn't know what to do because Michael's behavior was strange.

In April 2024, I received a letter from the County Elections Director. The letter was written by Fernando Madrid, who was a political opponent of Jay Whiting, Michael's wife. The letter indicated Madrid was withdrawing from the race because he was threatened, intimidated, and assaulted by Michael Whiting. Shortly thereafter is when ~~the~~ Trent Jensen and Daryl Greer began following me.

The materials that Cecilia and I found in the basement were Jay
