

Doris Jean Griego

Doris Jean Griego of Holbrook passed away peacefully in Show Low, Arizona, on the glorious morning of August 26, 2020 embraced by the loving arms of Jesus Christ. She was born on February 1, 1940.

Her heavenly welcoming party included her parents, Tomas and Isadora Apodaca, siblings Juanita, Francis, Alice, Nick, Pete, Amey and (Mary), Dickey, her late husband Louis C. Garcia Sr., her nieces Debra and Sarah, nephew Orland and sister-in-law Betty.

She is survived by the love of her life Richard Griego; brother, Frank Apodaca "Crazy Horse"; her children, Louis T. Garcia Jr., (Anna), June Allison Barreras (Robert Barreras), Vincent Charles Garcia, Francesca Sanchez and (Juan Sanchez), Severo Griego; grandchildren Erica, Eric, Ryan, Adrian and Arylana and great-grandchildren.

Jean was the baby of a nine children she excelled in academics earning a BS and Masters degree in Education at Northern Arizona University. Jeanie will be most remembered as a loving wife, mother, teacher, mentor, coach, friend and child of Christ. Jean was an educator in the public school system for 27 years.

Some of Jeans most memorable moments where working at the Roxy Movie Theatre in high school, driving her friends and cousins in her first car, big brother Frank carrying her on his shoulders from 5 mile wash, having caught her 200 lb.-Marlin, hiking the Grand Canyon and river rafting the Colorado River. Jean spent a lot time with her family and best friends and she pursued her interest in salt and fresh water fishing as well as hiking and traveling. Jean also enjoyed cooking, dancing and volunteering was near and dear to her heart especially at Sunnyside Neighborhood Association where she was president.

She was laid to rest at Calvary Catholic Cemetery in Flagstaff Arizona on Sept. 8, 2020. Due to the Pandemic Services will limited to invitation only, a celebration of Jean's life will be announced at later time and date.