Pet of the Week

Barney, male 10-year-old Chihuahua mix is a great lap dog, housebroken, good with other dogs. He just loves people and wants to be loved back. He likes to burrow under his blankets and lay by the fire. Barney will need continuous heart medication, but he is improving.

Pet of the Week

Izzy is a sweet, loyal, older gal who is strong-minded girl but very obedient. She is active and lively and loves to be around my people. Her previous owner said she is a wonderful family dog, however, she would do best in a home with older children. She walks very well on a leash. If you have any other dogs at home they will need to do a proper introduction to see if they all like each other. She would not do well with cats. Come meet her at the shelter. She will be waiting for you.

Pet of the Week

Vegas is a male brindle medium coat chow at 6 years old. He loves people and a yummy treat. He knows a dog door, sit and walks well on the leash. He is the definition of happy. Always smiling with his black colored tongue and just wants to get a head scratch. He will be waiting for you to love him.
