Market Report: January 29, 2026
We had a short run of fats for our Thursday January 29 th auction, but did find good activity, sending those top fats out at 234.75. We followed with a weigh cow and bull market that we called 8 to 10 higher across the board. We finished the afternoon with a short run of feeders and bred cows. If you have any feeders to sell, the market is very good, with the highest prices we have seen all year. Please give us a call if you have any fats, feeders or cows to sell and one of our team would be happy to stop out and visit with you about our upcoming specials

PERSONAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENTS

All depreciable personal property used in a trade of business, or for the production of income, is taxable. This also includes all property expenses under Section 179. This property shall be assessed to the owner as of January 1, at 12: 01 A.M. File on or before May 1st to avoid a penalty.

We will NOT be sending the Personal Property Schedules out this year. If you received a postcard, you or your accountant may file online using information from the front side of the post card, or you may mail or bring your depreciation worksheet and/or IRS Form 4562 from your current income tax return to the Cuming County Assessor's Office after you have completed your tax filing. The penalty for filing after May 1st and on or before June 30 will be 10% of the tax due. Penalty for filing on or after July 1 will be 25% of the tax due. State Statues do not allow for extending any of these deadlines.

FAILURE TO RECEIVE A SCHEDULE OR NOTICE FROM THE ASSESSOR DOES NOT EXEMPT YOU FROM FILING A PERSONAL PROPERTY SCHEDULE, IF YOU HAVE TAXABLE PROPERTY. If you have any questions, please contact the Cuming County Assessor's Office at (402) 372-6000 ext. #5 or email eschuetze@cumingcounty.ne.gov
