

Non-motorized fatalities in Missouri

According to the Missouri Department of Transportation, the data for 2025 has already surpassed the number of non-motorized fatalities this time last year. Non-motorized includes both pedestrians and bicyclist fatalities. In 2024, there were 166 non-motorized fatalities in the state, which was the most in the last five years.

