We are scrambling to try to do a quick [REDACTED] assigned to Safety and Training. We'll send it to North Dakota with squad gear if we go and I want it to have emergency lighting just in case. We can't use the [REDACTED] due to its grant requirements.

Probably not a bad idea to have lights is that [REDACTED] anyway. It already has a radio.

I checked with NDHP and we will not be able to utilize their fuel pumps. They have gone to an electronic system that requires a specific fleet card assigned to each vehicle. Sounds similar to our system. You will have to purchase a tank of gas each way and get reimbursed via the A-40, and this will be addressed in the memo coming forthwith. Thanks again for the idea!

This is only a suggestion as of course as I will follow what ever direction given.

The [REDACTED] is ready for action!

It has [REDACTED]. It has new [REDACTED]

I have the keys.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] - As soon as we get the new [REDACTED], we'll load them in the [REDACTED] and it will be ready for you to take.

All - I am awaiting a call from Sheriff Laney (Incident Commander in ND) this afternoon to confirm our deployment dates. It will either be this Saturday, or the following Saturday. There is a meeting with the oil company to discuss when they will be conducting the last phase of the construction at this site. They believe the protest activity will increase around this project. They want us to be there for this project, and the company will advise today if will kickoff on the 24th or the 31st. When I have this confirmed, I will send out the formal orders.

Thanks again for your availability and flexibility.
